

A photograph of a campus scene. In the foreground, there are large, dark green bushes and a tree with vibrant red flowers. A paved path leads from the bottom right towards the center. In the middle ground, there is a large, well-maintained green lawn. A black lamppost stands on the left side of the lawn. In the background, a multi-story brick building with white window frames is visible, surrounded by more green trees. The sky is overcast.

2010-2011 Review

We started out the year by putting the School's best face forward with the launch of our redesigned website, prominently featuring William Scoular's award-winning videos. Combined with our growing use of social media and increased live-streaming of events, the world has a clear picture of what the Andrean community has long known – St. Andrew's College is truly not an ordinary place.

As I reflect on the year's accomplishments and achievements, I realize the theme of "Brotherhood, Greater than Self", as chosen by this year's Prefects, was an inspired choice. I don't believe that I've heard a better phrase to describe the Andrean experience. How else than through the concerted effort of the 570-strong membership that constituted this year's brotherhood of Andreans could so much have been achieved, and so many memories created, in just 10 months?

It seems that each year surpasses the last, and this year is no exception. Our students have enjoyed outstanding successes academically, artistically and athletically, on the school grounds and beyond the gates. With countless reasons for pride and celebration, it's impossible to recount them all; however, leafing through these pages will certainly help evoke memories of all these special times as the years pass by.

Many events are etched in my mind, starting with the enthusiastic Homecoming celebrations in September that got the ball rolling for an action-packed fall that included the Dramatic Art Society's fantastic production of A Chorus Line, and Holiday Heroes, a program that illustrates well the power of our collective efforts as together we raised $35,000 worth of gifts for 70 families in the community.

In January, school spirit swelled when the 1st Hockey Team won gold in the MacPherson Hockey Tournament. During March Break students on the annual Battlefields Tour to France and Belgium were honoured with a once-in-a lifetime opportunity to attend the reburial ceremony of an unknown First World War Canadian soldier. St. Andrew's Pipes & Drums Band continues to bring us glory, whether winning awards at competitions, leading Cadets in Concert, the Church Parade down Yonge Street, or the annual Cadet Inspection, this year attended by Brigadier-General Gary O'Brien, Chief of Staff - Army Reserves.

Of course, Focus is always eagerly anticipated and this year's 26-play event involved over a hundred participants. The "All the Single Ladies" dance number in Glee is sure to have everyone talking for many years to come!

Athletically, it was another banner year with a record 56 teams competing in 23 sports, capturing 12 team championships that included 18 second-place finishes and 15 third-place finishes, along with house league and intramural play.

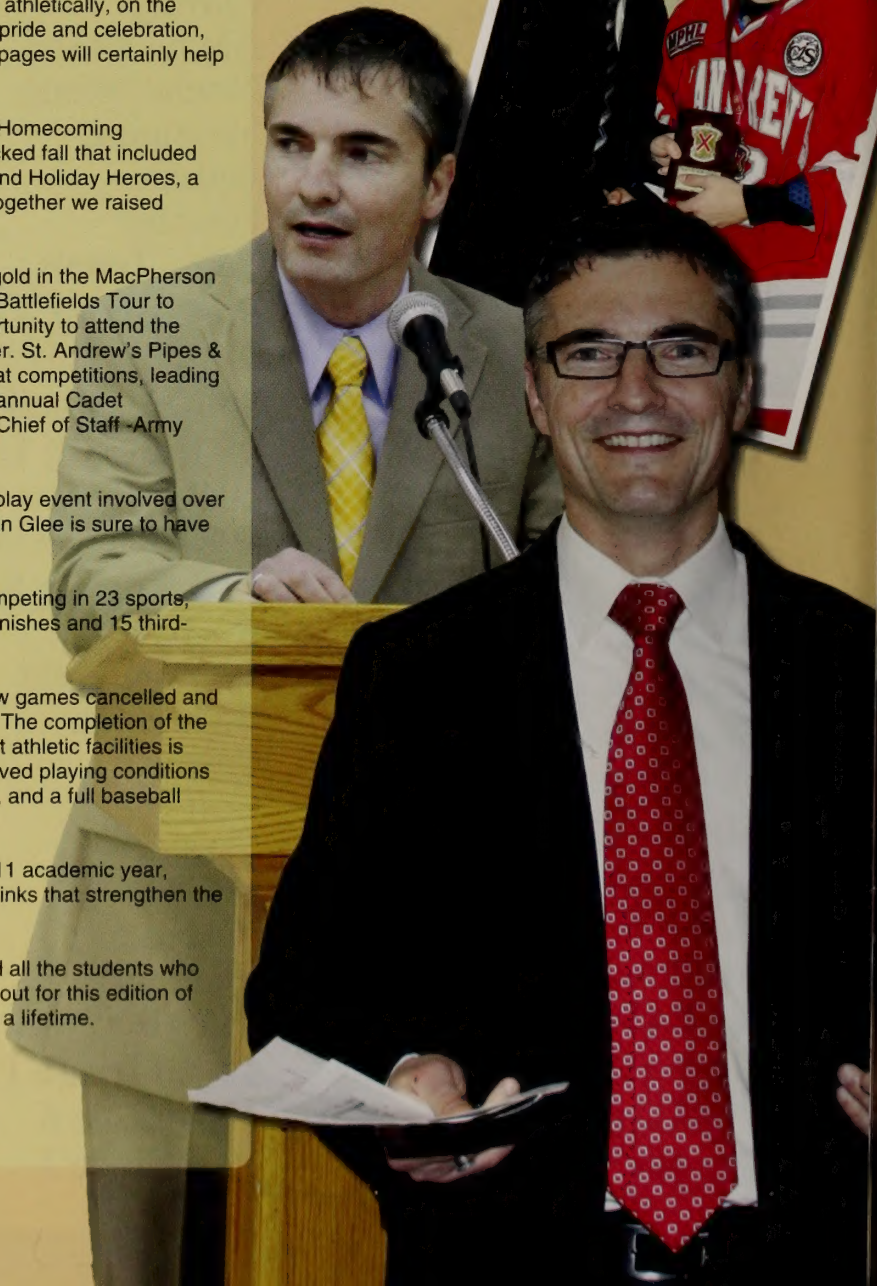

Certainly we will long remember the unusually rainy spring that saw games cancelled and athletes slogging it out on wet muddy fields in true Andrean spirit. The completion of the $6 million project to redevelop the Upper Fields into state-of-the-art athletic facilities is expected to be finished by year's end and will provide vastly improved playing conditions for years to come with its synthetic turf field, six-lane running track, and a full baseball diamond.

You will certainly have your own special memories of the 2010-2011 academic year, which combine to make the legacy that is St. Andrew's and foster links that strengthen the brotherhood bond.

I would like to extend a huge thank you to Mr. Steve Kimmerer and all the students who spent countless hours taking photos, writing text and designing layout for this edition of The Review. It is a tireless task, but provides us with memories of a lifetime.

Yours in brotherhood,

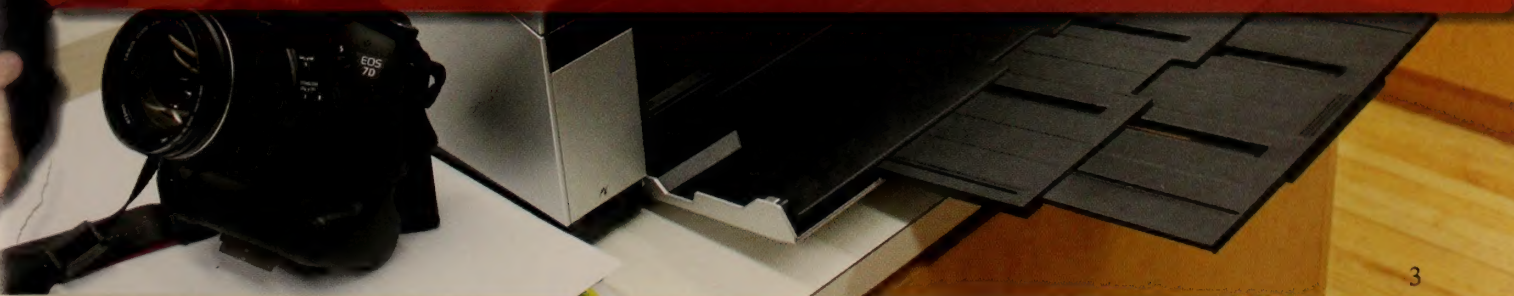

Headmaster Kevin McHenry

Memoriam

Clare Kowaltschuk (1973-2011)

I was recently approached to write something for the Review about a dear friend, Clare Kowaltschuk. I have to admit, I was extremely honoured. Clare had so many friends, and we all cared for her so much. Because she made such a significant impact on the entire St. Andrew's community, I would like to make sure I include some of the words and feelings of her students and colleagues as well.

Clare passed away in January 2011, and not only did I lose my best friend, but St. Andrew's lost one of its most beloved teachers and coaches. Her wonderful husband, Mr. Adam Kowaltschuk (aka Mr. K.), teaches in the Middle School, and this has helped members of the Andrean community cope with her death and keep her memory alive at the School. Clare asked me to make sure that her little boy, Nathan, would walk the halls in a few years as a student, and I know that everyone will support this and make it a reality.

Clare first came to SAC in 1999. She taught for one year, and returned in 2002 with Mr. K. to teach geography in the Upper School. She coached 1st tennis and alpine skiing, and became a favourite among the students. Clare learned she was pregnant in 2005, while she and Mr. K. were Assistant Housemasters in Macdonald House. Only a few months before her baby was due, Clare discovered she had breast cancer. The next four years, were devastating for Clare and her family. She taught so many people about courage and hope.

Clare once said, "You don't think of yourself as courageous when you have to face something like this. You do what you have to do to survive. Every parent knows that when your kids need you, you have to put them first. I was a mother more than I was a cancer victim. In many ways, I feel as though Nathan saved me." Throughout her battle, she loved Nathan, and was a beautiful mother. Her greatest fear was that he would not remember her. However, Clare is still very much with us. She told Nathan that she would become a star in the sky, and watch over him. We can still feel her energy, and I know that she is looking down on all of us – protecting her family and friends.

During this past school year, I would often visit Clare after work. She was always thrilled to see me and hear about my day. She always wanted to know what was happening at school and if I had any gossip. She missed teaching, the students, and all of the staff at the School. She wanted to continue being a part of the Andrean community, and often came to the School to speak with the boys, and support them with their fundraising efforts.

I was amazed, but not shocked, to see so many of her past students attend her memorial service. She had a tremendous impact on her students. Brendan McCullough '03 writes, "I will always remember the ear-to-ear smile 'Mrs. K.' always had when all the boys would filter into class causing trouble and being loud. You could tell she loved what she did every day." All of her students thought highly of her. Tyler Munro '06 said this about Clare, "Mrs. K. is an excellent teacher, not just because of the things she taught me in class, but because of the real wisdom she possesses and was able to teach me every day that I saw her." Adam Parent '03 described Clare's personality perfectly, "She helped me because she cared, as she cares for anyone that enters her life." This trait was evident not only with her students, but everyone who met Clare.

I first met Clare at St. Andrew's when we were both teaching grade 8 geography. How fortunate I was to teach with such a passionate geographer! She and I made a great team, and we worked closely together during that year. All of the faculty at the School will also agree that Mrs. K. was a pleasure to work with. Mr. Joiner, the Geography Department Head says this about Clare, "Honesty, empathy, and enthusiasm are Clare's signature traits." Mr. McHenry truly valued Clare as an outstanding educator and commented on how much the boys respected her as a teacher and as a person.

Her sister, Jane Kravchenko, also a former teacher at SAC, wrote, "As a teacher of geography, she was passionate and had a fervent love of people, places and adventure. She didn't just talk about what was over there; she went over there and brought some of it back. Her classroom extended way beyond the walls of SAC." There is no doubt that Mrs. K. was among the finest teachers this institution has ever had.

Clare would want me to pass along a message of encouragement to all of you to do what you believe in, and to make a difference in this world. Believe in yourself, and live for today. Every day is precious, so don't waste a minute.

I no longer fret the small stuff, and I will think of Clare every day of my life. She reminds me to smile, and live life to the fullest. The St. Andrew's community so graciously supported Clare throughout her battle, and we need to now continue to remember her legacy, and make her proud. We will all miss this special teacher, friend, and colleague.

HOMECOMING

Prayer CIRCLE

Lest We Forget, the students of St. Andrew's gathered in the Memorial Chapel to remember Andrean forebears who gave their lives in the world's conflicts in order to re-establish peace.

In preparation, grade 8 Middle School students under the direction of Mrs. Ramon researched the histories of Old Boys who had died. Then they produced trading cards about these men and their times at school and war. During the service, Middle School and grade 9 students heard the stories of eight of these men as told by grade 12 students. Then as an act of respect and honour they attached a poppy to memorials set out on the Quad.

At the second service, the boys were enthralled with stories by WWII veteran Don Kerr and journalist Ted Barris. Their dialogue brought the reality of war to life for the students and enabled us to remember what we have never experienced, the defeats and the victories of war.

In a minute of silence between the bugle and pipes, all of the men and women who have been victims of war were remembered and honoured. The meditative nature of the services was set by appropriate hymns and reflective music by the Middle School and Upper School bands.

Leadership at the services was provided by trumpeters Marc Romanin and Torrey Glendinning, Pipers Zachary Petrachek, Jordan Brown, Joseph Shields, and Arun Partridge, Nick Chretien, c/LCol Nick Mulder, c/Maj Zac Swierad and c/Maj Jerome Birdo, eight Grade 12 presenters, Kevin McHenry, David Stewart, John Clements and Rev. Bruce Roffey. They shall not grow old, as we that are left grow old: Age shall not weary them, nor the years condemn. At the going down of the sun and in the morning We will remember them.

Remembrance DAY

The morning sky before the Thanksgiving Prayer Circle threatened rain, regardless the students, faculty and staff gathered in a circle to give thanks for all the blessings we experience. The Canadian Thanksgiving weekend was only two days away, and so as we anticipated a weekend of feasting and well-deserved rest, it was appropriate to express our gratitude. We began with prayers in Arabic praising God, and then, following Canadian aboriginal traditions, we turned to face the east, south, west, and north, the foundation of the earth and the canopy of the sky offering thanks to God for the gifts of those directions. Readings were heard from the Jewish and Christian scriptures in a variety of languages. We closed with Hebrew blessings and words of wisdom from Africa.

Andean traditions we celebrated as an altar was formed with the drums at the beginning and the pipes announced our departure. Unique this year was the presentation of a Tilston Award by King Ward to teacher Adam Kowaltschuk, who has been such an inspiration to the students over the past four years as he supported his wife Clare through trying times while fulfilling his duties at St. Andrew's with dedication, commitment and courage.

Participants this year included Cole Macgregor, Elliot Almuina Pica, Pierre-Louis Vaz, Muhammad Salyani, Andrew Keenleyside, Gun Park, Jun Young Lee, Cayne Lander, Peter Wu, Juan Pablo Salem Hajj, Sonny Atkins, Taylor MacLean, Arun Partridge, John Clements, and drummers of St. Andrew's.

ANNUAL CROSS COUNTRY RUN

Headmaster McHenry
U.S. Winner - Fabian Andark

On October 5th, the annual cross country run was held. The run is a very old tradition that the School has carried on for over 100 years. An immense amount of effort was shown by all competitors throughout the race, however this year there was a new leader in town. Fabian Andark, a grade 11 student from Sweden, took off to an early lead. For the Middle School, Avery Mackenzie also got off to a great start. In spite of valiant attempts by other racers to overtake these two leaders, Fabian and Avery were awarded trophies as the 2010-11 Cross Country Run winners.

I would like to thank all of our coaches. I am honoured and humbled to coach alongside Mike Carroll, Joe Foote, Courtenay Shrimpton, Jon Butcher, and Fabian Rayne. All of these men are great friends, outstanding football coaches, and even better people. Following a frustrating 2009 season, which saw the St. Andrew's College Varsity Football team fail to make the CISAA finals for the first time in five years, the team chose the words "Silencing those who doubt us" as our motto for the 2010 campaign. When training camp broke on Labour Day weekend, we set high expectations for ourselves. The team's primary objectives were to restore a lost sense of pride and to win every game. As a result of our on-field success, the team spent the entire season ranked # 1 in the Greater Toronto Area by the Toronto Star, and reached as high as # 6 in the country according to Canada Football. Although we fell short of our ultimate goal, and must live with the fact that we played our poorest game of the season in the CISAA championship game, I do hope that our players and coaches take solace in the many tremendous individual and team achievements enjoyed throughout the season. Our football program is back in the provincial spotlight. Rest assured, we are here to stay. In the past, we would use this assembly to look ahead to next season. Due to the tremendous amount of respect that I have for this year's group of grade 11 players, I am going to hold off on those comments today. Thank you. Mr. Len Gurr Esq.

U16 FOOTBALL

The under 16 football team enjoyed a great deal of success this year. Having suffered such a disappointing season last year, it was with cautious optimism then, that the coaches put together the lineup in the pre-season weeks of September. Our early results were very encouraging, winning both our first two league games and scoring convincing victories in 5 out of 7 pre-season scrimmages & exhibition games.

The story of the rest our season can be summerizd up in our three games vs St. Mike's. This team has always provided us with considerable difficulty, in fact, in 16 previous attempts, over the course of the last 12 years, the U16 football team has never managed to beat St. Mikes, not even once. We honestly believed that this year our team was strong enough and this was going to be the one to break this streak. A convincing result at Homecoming game with only one week of practice had us very optimistic about our chances in our league game vs St. Mike's. And we were right! For the first time ever, we came out and dominated St. Mike's in our league game, and actually were beating them at half time... leading by a score of 7-0.

Unfortunately, on the very last play of that same first half, our tailback, Tyler St. Kitts-Park broke his left arm. Without a starting tailback, and having to convert our best linebacker to running back with very little prep time, St. Mikes picked away at our lead and pulled out a victory with less than 2 minutes left in the game. Without Tyler as a scoring threat, we were unable to adjust our offensive scheme enough to mount much of an attack and the season ended with two disappointing losses to both UCC and St. Mike's, once again, in the Semi-finals of the playoffs.

The 2010 1st soccer season must certainly be seen as bitter sweet. To be honest, Coach Day and I weren't 100% sure what type of team we would have when training camp kicked off during Labour Day weekend. We were pleasantly surprised, however, very quickly to discover we had a young, hard working and tight knit group that brought our soccer program a step closer to its ultimate goal.

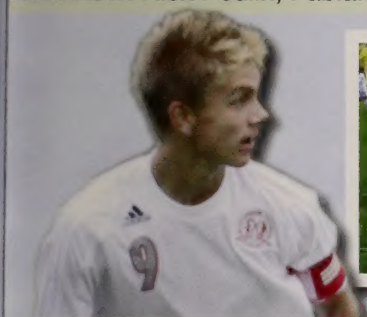

The season opened with what were probably the toughest two games on our schedule, playing defending New England Prep Champions, South Kent School and New England finalist, Hotchkiss School as preseason friendly opponents in Connecticut. What our boys showed in two tight games, was that we were much better than the coaches gave them credit for, and that this season was going to be one to remember. The CISAA season got off to flying start as we captured the League Cup, a preseason tournament involving all of the senior Division 1 teams. In fact, this was the first time since 2001 that our soccer team has claimed such an honour and got us off to a great start.

Highlights of the regular season would have to be a 3-0 drubbing of UCC at home, the season shutout of St. Mike's 6-0 in three matches, and a gutsy 3-3 tie with 9 men against a very talented Appleby side. Heading into the playoffs we ranked 2nd, one point adrift of league winners Appleby and earned home field against Upper Canada in the semi-finals, the first home playoff game earned in a number of years. Unfortunately, for our boys UCC had other plans on the day and an early goal held up in a 1-0 loss. To our credit we pressed until the final whistle, hit a couple bars along the way and generally made it very nervous for both benches as the minutes and then seconds ticked away. In the end, a very successful season as we have moved ourselves forward and with a number of returning players and starters, we will look to next season, with cautious optimism. We will, however, be losing a number of quality players and individuals this season to graduation and I would like to take this opportunity to recognize them and their contributions please stand when called. DM

We ran the table this year, having a record of 5 wins, zero losses in the regular season and finishing 2nd in the SEAL Varsity boys silver division. Our season ended in the CISAA semi-final, in a shootout. The team played a superb match, battling both the opposing team and the elements; it was 3 degrees with light snow. Unfortunately, we were unable to hold onto a one-goal lead with 10 minutes to play.

Absent: Ryan Neiman, Andrew Lefebvre, Michael Anobile, Daniel Chalifour, Edward Essue, Akash KC, Liam Neuman.

In a season as short as the fall season was this year the importance of sorting out positions and catalyzing the 'feeling' of a team cannot be overstated. U16A squad managed a 3-4-0 record and missed the CISAA final 4 tournament by only one point!

The 2nd Annual U16 Bermuda Tour was a huge success and great way to finish the season. My personal thanks to Brian McCue for the superb planning and attention to detail. MJ

U16B SOCCER

The U16 B Soccer team was a high spirited band of brothers both in practice and in games. Our primary goals for the season were to develop our soccer skills, enhance our understanding of the game and to inspire our teammates, regardless of the final score. The U16B team were champions in this regard.

Our season started strongly with a 4-3 victory against Albert College, however the next four league matches proved to be greater challenges. Nevertheless, the boys impressed me with their tenacity and determination, each and every game. It has been another very enjoyable season for the U16B soccer team.

U14 SOCCER

The Under 14 Tier One soccer team finished the season with 8 wins and 1 tie. We hosted the final weekend playing UCC in the semis and St. Mike's in the final.

The final was a very intense game and unfortunately, some of our players struggled to control their emotions leading to one red, and two yellows along with two penalty shots- one of which Kunal saved!

Needless to say, even with 10 players for 45 minutes St. Mike's was still unable to break us down and the game ended with a 5-2 win.

Tier 2 had another exciting season. Despite the fact that every game we played was against other schools Tier 1 teams, we managed to be competitive in every game but one. The most notable fact about our team was the way in which we competed. Game in and game out the boys showed tenacity and courage. They could never be faulted for their effort. Thank you fellas for a great season.

The Under 13 D1 soccer team began the season cautiously after a number of very difficult games last year. However, the addition of some talented new boys gave the returning players a glimpse of hope. The team finished with a 2 and 2 league record to qualify for the CISAA Final Four. The highlight of the season was an impressive effort in a 2-0 loss against Hillfield-Strathallan College in our championship semi-final game. This was against a team that had beaten us twice before by scores of 7 to 2 and 8 to 1.

This year I was very happy to see a large turnout that included a handful of players who were used to playing soccer at a high level. John Musgrave, Nik Seidel, Patrick Turner, Michael von Schalburg, and Conor Woodroffe were all able to lead by example with their understanding of the game. During league play, the boys earned wins against Sterling Hall, Country Day, and Pickering a draw in a second game with Country Day and two draws with UCC. For the final 8 tournament, we were ranked 2nd which had us playing Villanova in the quarter-finals. We won 3-1 which set up yet another rematch with UCC. True to form, we were tied 2-2 after regulation time. In the end, was a goal by Luca Zadra and a stop by Cooper Scullion-Smeenk that sealed the victory. I would like to give honourable mention both of our goalkeepers; Cooper as well as Matthew Medhurst.

Over the November Long Weekend, 16 lucky souls from our soccer program travelled to Bermuda to enjoy some sun, fun, and soccer. The trip was comprised of players under the age of 16, from the 1st, JV and U16 programs and coaches Mr. McCue, Mr. Jones, and Mr. Manning. As always, the team was treated very well by the host school, Saltus Grammar School (Hamilton, Bermuda) and their headmaster, our former Headmaster Ted Staunton. A major highlight of the trip was the chance to watch an international rugby match, and to see the New Zealand, Haka performed in person! Much fun was had by the players and coaches alike and we left Bermuda relaxed for the remainder of the term, and with a number of great memories of the this beautiful island.

We go back to September 2009; First Volleyball began the season with five rookies in the starting lineup. They had little volleyball experience under their belts and, I tell you, it was a challenging season and one season full of revelations.

We move to September 2010. This very same group of players who embraced the spirit of our unique captain, and armed with a 6'6 grade 9 rookie, became a volleyball team, a real volleyball team. From Ottawa to Hamilton to Toronto, the volleyball boys were a pleasant surprise; they have earned the respect of coaches at every tournament we participated in. They played organized, intense and entertaining volleyball. They played with heart, they played with class and with a little more experience, focus and consistency they would have probably made it to the CISAA championship game.

With U16 volleyball this year, we started the first week of our season with the strongest team in our league and our toughest match of regular season play. With good size, a lot of athleticism, and solid fundamentals, we had a decent base to build on. Although plagued by injuries and conflicting sports commitments throughout much of the season, we managed to finish league play with a record of 6 wins and 2 losses to secure second place. We defeated Crescent handily in the next three games to move on to the championship match against St. Mike's. We lost in four games, but one of those losses, the first game of the match, was a 28-26 heartbreaker. Then after losing 25-7 in the second game, we rallied for a third game win before falling in the fourth. I would also like to thank the remaining five players for their hard work throughout the season.

Eight wins, zero losses. Tournament Champions, League Champions and CISAA champions. You can without a doubt say that the U14 Volleyball team had a perfect season this year. In regular season play, we not only finished first place, but we did not drop a set. Each and every player can be proud of their contribution to this successful season, as everyone improved and earned many points for their team when it came time for the CISAA final four, we thought our time had come to at least lose a set. Not only did the team blow out UCC in the semi-finals, but we defeated our arch-rivals, St. Mike's in a three set battle. Our secret? Great passes, great serves and teamwork. No other team could match the spirit and comradery of the Saints. I would like to thank the team for such a great season, and my two co-coaches, Ms. McNair and Ms. Murdoch

The season consisted of several preliminary meets whereby the team had the opportunity to test their abilities. Each race proved to be more challenging than the previous.

Our season was marked with many memorable times such as discovering that there is a sacred holiday on Fridays in September in the Korean calendar. And, a McDonald's breakfast the morning of the championship is a hidden secret that only our team knows of. Thank-you Jason.

At the CISAA Finals in Port Hope on October 26, your Saints were determined to tackle the dreaded "Mt. Trinity" a steep 100m climb at the end of the course with vigour. The weather cooperated with a perfect day for running, and allowed many team members to improve on their results from earlier in the season. The junior boys' team finished 5th overall.

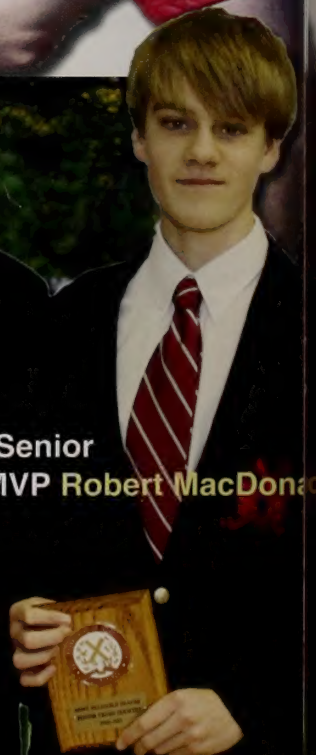

It was at that meet that Keaton Ward qualified for the OFSAA Championships in Etobicoke.

Unique and widely diverse runners came together this fall to form the Middle School Cross-Country team. There were many highlights from the season. At Crescent School, the boys had to contend with the muddy and treacherous terrain of the course where Elliott Powers actually continued to run barefoot despite losing a shoe in the mud early on in the race. I'm sure Conrad Scullion-Smeenk will remember running neck in neck with the girls at Villanova as he actually placed 20th in his best race all season. The team as a whole will remember lots of laughter, lots of running, lots of planks, and of course, doing "the Clarence". They will remember attempting to beat Mr. Ramon whether it was in running speed or in playing Ninja - they were never successful. Some will never forget getting lost on the Willowfarm Lane loop, which would never have been an issue had it actually remained a "loop". I'm sure Eric Asgari will remember breaking both wrists just days before the final CISAA. And of course, the dreaded Trinity College Hill, which was the final challenge at the end of their tremendous season.

I would like to thank all the boys for their amazing attitude and effort all season and to say goodbye to the grade 8's who will be moving on up to Mr. T's team next year. If you thought Mr. Ramon was fast, boys, wait until you see Mr. T!

I also like to thank Coach Ramon for his creative and unique practices. Not only were no two practices alike, but the boys were often having too much fun to even realize that they were becoming better runners as they built strength and endurance through the drills that he created.

Winter Term

US St. Andrew's Day

No Scottish celebration would be complete without sampling traditional Scottish food to the sound of bagpipes. After Master of Ceremonies David Joiner introduced the head table, Chaplain Bruce Roffey started each Upper School banquet with a brief history of St. Andrew's Day and its importance to St. Andrew's College. Following piper Steven Sirbovan, a steaming haggis was paraded around the Great Hall by trencher bearers Andrew Begg and Graeme Allison (dayboys) or Luke Smith and Spencer Feeley (boarders) to the head table where it was stabbed by Headmaster Kevin McHenry. The haggis was then praised by guest orator Chris Wyvill who recited "To The Haggis" by Robbie Burns and 'trenched' the haggis with his knife. Cup bearers Francois Yoshida-Are (dayboy) and Arthur Parakovits (boarder), the youngest Upper School dayboy and boarder, respectively, assisted in the ceremony.

A meal of 'mints, tatties, mashed nips and haggis' followed the Selkirk Grace presented by Assistant Headmaster John Walden. Top-ranked piper Arun Partridge played for the gathered celebrants at each banquet as they finished their apple pie. Head Table guests helped present clan colour pins, earned for their balanced commitment to academics, sports, extracurricular activities and community service.

In addition to those mentioned above, Jim McGillivray (Director of Piping and Drumming), Brian McCue (Cadet Corps), Gary Godkin (Director of the Upper School), Courtenay Shrimpton (Assistant Headmaster, Student Life), Scott Hayter (Executive Director of Advancement), Michael Paluch (Director of Academics), Michael Roy (Director of Admission), Courtenay Shrimpton (Assistant Headmaster) and Grace Wyvill (Food Services Manager) sat at the Head Table or participated in the planning and conducting of the successful Upper School banquets.

The definite high moment of the season had to be the 28th annual MacPherson tournament early in the new year. Battling back from a 3 goal deficit in the semi-finals to win in OT and coming from behind in the final to claim a gold medal also in overtime was a definitely rewarding experience for players and staff alike. A number of injuries in the final month of the season left us always playing short-handed and it eventually caught up to us. In the Mid West Prep Hockey League we couldn't follow our regular season divisional crown with the playoff championship. A controversial overtime loss in the semi-finals ended our championship dream. The following week, playing undermanned again, we couldn't make it by the semi-finals in the CISAA playoffs after claiming the regular season title. In the end, it was a successful season on a number of fronts despite the final results. We played all comers tough and we were never an easy game all season. After a season of being hunted, we aim to be the hunter and take back what we see as ours next season.

The JV Hockey team headed into this season as repeat champions and was hoping to make it three in a row. This would prove to be no easy task as many of the impact players from last year's team were graduating seniors. This left us with a very young JV team. In fact, with one grade 12 player, and only a handful of grade 11s, we may have had the youngest team in the league.

We finished the season undefeated in CISAA play and finished second in the CISAA league of 15 teams, and advanced to the 1/4 final. The 1/4 final vs Crescent was our most exciting game of the season. We took a 4-0 lead into the third period only to give up 4 goals late and head to overtime. It was kind of like living a horrible nightmare. We were reeling in OT when Matt Carter made several great saves to send the game to a shootout. It then went to the dreaded sudden death shootout using players that had not already shot where we won the game. The boys went on to defeat Villanova College 7-4 in the semi-final setting up a game against St. Mike's in Toronto. In the final, the boys played a much better game than St. Mike's and skated to a convincing 6-3 victory to bring home the third JV Hockey Championship in a row.

Since we were defending U16 Hockey champions, we had big shoes to fill. We were 99 goals for, 91 goals against in tournament and league play and our record was 17-10. During one of our key games, Jack O'Neill forgot his skates... we lost to UCC that day. In fact, there weren't many games that someone didn't forget equipment. Tristan Joseph was absent for two months, then arrived on the bus for our semi-final game. "Where have you been?", I asked. "GLC". That day, he forgot his entire hockey bag. Devon de Langley learned how to raise the puck on the ice this year and began to score some goals, while Branden Fennell usually skated around the ice, avoiding people and yelling "Weeeee". Austin Pugliese registered 9 break-aways, but remained scoreless on the season, while Spencer Harris coined several key phrases while on the bench: "Ooooh, that was a big hit"; "Man, this game is fast", and "Change 'em up!" This was a colourful group! In seriousness, we had a solid season. We won the York University Tournament in December and handled almost any team we faced. Our toughest competition, like every year, was St. Mike's. Already a tough mountain to climb, key injuries late in the season hurt our ability to match up with St. Mike's. We reached our goal this year, like we have done in all previous seasons: make it to the finals! We lost to St. Mike's but we put forth a solid effort, one that was not displayed by the school. We had a successful season and both Coach Reid and I remain very proud of this squad. I do want to thank Coach Reid for everything that he brought to the team. And, despite what I have said, it was a pleasure to coach alongside someone so knowledgeable and handsome! I also want to thank our captain Kyle Zacharuk and Jake (Jimmy) Stirling for their leadership this season.

We were quite excited about the 2010-2011 edition of the U14 hockey team. We had a strong core of returning players and knew that we would be a force to be reckoned with. In the end, in 13 games, our record was 9 wins, 3 losses and 1 tie. We scored 53 goals for and ONLY allowed 14 goals against recording six shut outs along the way by the goaltending tandem of Matthew Galajda and Cole Chapman. We were the only team to defeat eventual champion the St. Mike's A team and we did it twice. Unfortunately, two of our losses were against the St. Mike's B team, which happened to defeat us in OT in the CISAA semi-finals as we were outshot 34-12. A big thank you to our Student Coaches - Scott Kimmerer and Konstantin Bogdanow for all their efforts on and off the ice as well as to coaches Mr. Joiner and Mr. Kitagawa.

I would also like to take a moment to recognize the hard work of the players and coaches within our entire basketball program at SAC. Through their efforts, basketball program is clearly on the rise. Four years ago, there would have been only one or two teams qualifying for the playoffs. This year, the 7 SAC Basketball teams captured 1 CISAA Championship and 5 Second Place finishes!

That said, it is my job this morning to recognize 12 young men who are in their own right, exceptional athletes. They worked hard and they produced results. Saints ended the season with a 22-11 record, which included winning the Roger Stover Basketball Classic tournament in Waterloo, winning the consolation championship at the Annual Notre Dame tournament in St. Catharines and winning the consolation championship at the Grizzly Classic held at Georgian College in Barrie. Our season also included three heart breaking 2-point losses, the most significant of which was the OFSAA qualifier. For the fourth straight year we earned the right to play the top double A school in the Toronto District Catholic School Board and we were just 3 points away from earning a spot in the OFSAA tournament.

All of our athletes are to be commended on their commitment and contribution to the basketball program at St. Andrew's. I would like to ask the following boys to stand up:

Eric Merkel, Nadiv Hossain, Nick Chretien, Akshay Wadera, Will Egi, and Sam Doucette. These are our graduating players. They have devoted a tremendous amount of time to our program and they have proudly worn the Red and White of the Saints and they could not have been better ambassadors for our school. We have seven players returning and both Coach Ludwig and myself are confident that these young men will take the program to new heights.

The award for the most improved player is usually one that we struggle to identify because all of our players show tremendous growth from the start of the season till the end of the season. As a team, we went from losing to Ridley by 30 points at the very start of the year, to beating them by 15 points by the end of the season. All went from being good athletes that liked to play pick-up basketball in the gym, to true basketball players.

This year, one player's improvement stood out among the rest. The young man we have chosen has gone from getting a couple of minutes a game last year, starting half of games this year. His athleticism enabled him to get huge rebounds at the offensive end of the court, he began to understand when and where to take his shots, he progressed from trying all kinds of crazy streetball moves to taking solid, fundamental basketball shots, and as a coaching staff we gave up getting him to rebound defensively because he was just so darn good at cherry-picking! He would often leak out and get a fast break bucket that was the dagger in the hopes of the opposition.

Anybody that watched us play this year would have no problem in identifying our MVP. He has tremendous athleticism, rebounding tenacity, and the ability to score in multiple ways. However, like any great athlete, our MVP worked hard to improve despite the fact that it would have been easy to coast by on his athleticism. Throughout the year, he learned to take what the defense gave him, to make more fundamental moves towards the basket, and to improve his defense so that it would translate into fast-break opportunities for his teammates. And in almost every game, he would throw down at least one thunderous dunk to send the crowd in Bedard into a frenzy, and send our opponents on their way home.

Congratulations to this year's 1st Basketball MVP, Jamal Kett.

We have one last award to present and that is the David 'Juice' Josselyn award for lifetime contribution to basketball at St. Andrew's. This year we have three recipients who started their careers in grade 7 and represented SAC well on the hardwood for the past six years. Please help me congratulate Akshay Wadera, Eric Merkel and Will Egi.

Despite losing two of our first three games this past season, we rallied and won eight of our nine remaining games and established ourselves as a dangerous "underdog" by playoffs. We were a team of determined young men who consistently out-worked their opponents and never once conceded defeat. Season highlights include the 3-point buzzer beater to defeat Toronto French School, the outstanding defensive play that kept the league's top scoring player to a mere 9 points, and a CISAA silver medal. I would like to thank all of the members of the JV basketball team for an exciting and memorable season.

This season was busy with 4 tournaments, 8 league and 3 playoff games. Our overall record was 16 wins 8 losses. In league play we finished third behind St. Mike's and UCC, setting the stage for a very exciting playoff run. In the quarterfinal, we avenged a buzzer beating 2-point loss to Crescent, winning by 15 points. Our semi-final matchup was a hotly contested game against UCC. UCC had drubbed us quite easily in two previous games by more than 20 points. After three quarters we were still down by 10 but closing the gap. In the last minute a key basket by Cole Sopik, clutch free throw shooting by Chris Egi, superb execution when it mattered most, we went up by one and held on. In the final, against a more rested St. Michael's team, we struggled and had to settle for a silver medal.

The U14 basketball had another very exciting season. After a very slow start with consecutive losses to St. Mike's, Hillfield and UCC the team went on a tear and won 12 of their next 13 games. During that stretch they defeated every team that had beaten them earlier in the season. 2 games were of particular interest. In the preseason we lost to St. Mike's by 25 points. In the rematch we beat them by 10. The other game of note was the rematch with UCC. In one of the most exciting games in recent memory we beat them 78:73 in the Bedard gym. They repeated as champions of the Ashbury College tournament and played their way into the finals vs St. Mike's in their gym. Despite a valiant effort they ran out of gas and lost 67 to 72.

The U12 Basketball program resumed this term after a 3-year hiatus. Since our grade 6's are always first year students, there's no way of telling what levels of interest or ability they will bring. This year, we were very happy to see that there was a good number of grade 6 students wanting to try out and among them there were a couple players with real experience and a great number of kids with natural athletic ability and heart.

Although it took a while to learn some of our plays, we came together as an energetic, cohesive team and surprised a few teams along the way. We earned victories against Bayview Glen, UCC, and Sterling Hall during the regular season and then advanced to the final tournament with a win in a qualifier against Crestwood. Unfortunately, our first match in the tournament was against the powerhouse from Holy Trinity, who not only got by us but then cruised to the gold medal. We actually played two games against Holy Trinity this season, which were quite honestly complete mismatches, but I was always proud of our team, as they were good sports and played their hardest until the final whistle. Well done, boys!

It was great to return to the curling team this year and find both new faces and returning curlers. We began the season with a sweep of the Early Bird Bonspiel, winning both the skills competition as well as the tournament, overall. Throughout the season, our second team, skipped by both Alex Brown and Michael Chiang, worked on honing their skills. Our first team, Coverdale, Pollock, Lum and Xu, dominated CISAA league play, completing the first undefeated season of SAC curling.

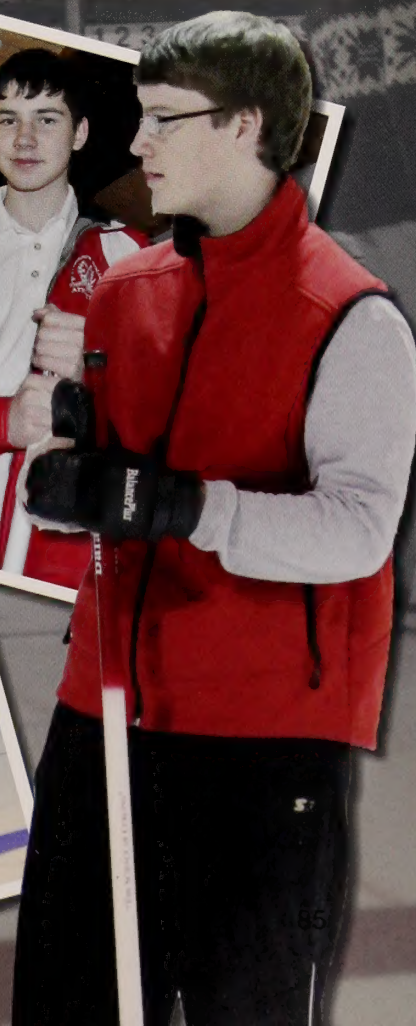

Unfortunately, we learned the hard way that curling is no different from any other sport; many factors have to come together in your favour if you're going to win a championship. Despite an incredible last-rock shot from Skip Coverdale, we were unable to top off this incredible season with a CISAA win.

Despite the fact that we went to OFSAA via the "roll-down," it was still an honour to compete and represent our conference. We were a bit out of our league, playing against very experienced, club teams, but our SAC boys still managed to win a number of ends, and made me proud to be their coach. Our shining moment was pushing the 2nd best team in Ontario to an extra end in our second draw. Based on the faces of both teams coming off the ice, you would have thought that we had won the game, rather than the other team taking it by 1 point.

I would be remiss if I didn't say a few thank-yous. Thanks to Mr. Manning and Mrs. Bedard for their help in organizing our trek to Thunder Bay. Thanks also to Mr. Trevisan for sacrificing a significant portion of his March Break to act as a second chaperone.

Finally, thanks to the grads. Ryan Coverdale, Grant Pollock, Matt Xu and Michael Lum. You have been committed to this team for a long time. You have demonstrated leadership and team play to our up-and-coming players. Your skills and presence will be missed next year.

Alpine Skiing

The season started with 35 eager skiers willing to take on this challenge and attempt to knock off some of the other dominant teams in our division. At the end of the day all that our varsity teams could muster was a 4th place finish in level 1 and 6th in level two. However, we were unable to improve from this point on and a rash of unfortunate crashes and inconsistent results led to our 4th place finish overall in both Varsity Divisions. Despite a rather shaky start, the JV team improved immeasurably as the year progressed with our level 1 team winning the final race of the year. This secured a 2nd place season finish for the team which is truly a remarkable achievement. Many of these racers will move up to the Varsity ranks next year, and their continued hard work and dedication will undoubtedly ensure the success of our Alpine Race program for many years.

Nordic Skiing

With 12 of the 20 students new to this sport, we had some work to do when it came to the 'learn to ski' component, but fortunately we had enough snow here on campus to lay out a track in the upper fields. Race season came upon us quickly in January. We took part in five invitational races where we focused on our race skills and strategies. These were an eye opener for us, as the competition field was extremely strong and many of the competitors had skied for years. Four members of the team represented SAC at the biathlon competitions. The senior boy's team and our top junior represented the CISAA League at OFSAA, spending three incredible skiing days in the Gatineau's near Ottawa.

Lead by Lead by our strong Captains Daniel Cho and Steven Sirbovan and co-captains Ben Sutton and Spencer Brown, our U16, JV and 1st teams were confident, strong and very large in numbers this year. Our race season started off very fast and just got faster and faster at each meet. The season started with 10 swimmers travelling to our annual Bermuda Training Camp with the selected U16 soccer team. The training was intense with some practices reaching 7000m, often training twice a day. The competition came early in the camp and we raced well against teams from all over Bermuda including their National Team. Our swimmers dominated the races while Theo Sotiropoulos and Spencer Brown tore apart their competition and won every race they swam!

Our mid season meets were just as exciting with best times, gold, silver and bronze medals, and record breaking swims throughout. This set us up very well for CISAA and OFSAA.

The CISAA Championship took place February 15th at the Etobicoke Olympium where our swimmers broke 5 school records and won 6 events placing us 3rd in the U16 category and 2nd for our Senior team. From this meet we had 14 OFSAA qualifiers for our final meet of the season on March 1st and 2nd. Out of 146 boys' school teams we finished 4th overall. Well done, gentlemen. You made us proud!

The middle-school swimming team came a long way from our first practices in early November. Over the course of four months, our strokes, endurance and bond as a team strengthened, and our hard work paid off: at the CISSA championships, all of our swimmers posted personal bests. Eduardo Solloa and Owen Luo also combined for a third- and two fourth-place finishes at the championship – no small feat at a meet dominated by club swimmers. We also hosted two fine meets at our pool, braved a wild snow storm to and from Hamilton, and always kept an eye on where we were grabbing food after a meet. Congrats on a great season, boys.

We began the season winning the Early Bird tournament and earning 79 of a possible 90 matches and then went undefeated during the regular season. Two weeks before the finals we hosted two day provincial silver tournament to bring players from around the province to compete, to show off our facilities, and let people know that we have a thriving and growing squash program. When we first ran this tournament over six years ago our guys bowed out pretty early. This year we had players in the hunt until Sunday. In U19 Josh Mahfood came in 2nd and Zach Seto came in 4th. In U17 Alex Seto came in 3rd. In U15 Aidan Calverly came in 3rd and Kevin Chong came in 5th.

Lead by our two captains Chris Adams-McGavin and Zach Seto we went into the CISAA Championships with everyone healthy and at the top of their game.

As happens every year, in the last round robin matches of the Championships things are very close between the top schools. This year UCC had won 62 games, Nichols had 61 and Crescent had 60. The difference this year was that we had already accumulated 88 points and had clinched 1st place. As the other teams gathered around the tournament desk they realized they were playing for second place. When all matches but one were finished and the scores were subtotaled SAC had a commanding 102 games won, and the next three schools still very tight with UCC at 70, Nichols at 69, and Crescent at 68. With everyone watching the final match, Alex Seto and a Crescent player battled it out to determine who would be the silver medalist. Alex played in front of an enthusiastic crowd of 100 players, coaches, and parents. It was a great match. Alex disposed of the Crescent player 2-0 and gave UCC their second place finish. It must be one of the first times UCC ever cheered for SAC. In the final tally, we had won 104 of a possible 108 matches. I think this is the first time I have seen everyone play their best squash of the season in a finals.

CISAA CHAMPIONS

The U16 squash team had another winning season. Everyone played in at least one match, sometimes as many as 7 or 8 spots above their inner-squad rank. We won more than 90% of our games, and this was the fifth straight CISAA championship for the U16 team. When faced with the decision of choosing our MVP and MIP, it really came down to two individuals for both. These two Grade 8 athletes are pushing 5 feet tall on tiptoes and weigh in at less than 90 lbs., but they're agile, quick, skilled and fiercely competitive. They constantly pushed each other for that #1 rank, and it went back and forth between them throughout the entire season. Without the other one there, I don't think either of them would have made the progress that they did. Not once did any of our Grade 9's or 10's successfully challenge for the top two spots against either of them, and by their season records in league play, you would never know that they were two years younger than most of their competitors.

From the beginning of the season, the expectations were high for this young team. With a legacy of CISAA Championships, the pressure was on, even before the first tryout. The boys proudly represented St. Andrew's at every meet. The U14 Squash team this year had skill, dedication, and a great attitude. It is no surprise that they continued their winning ways and earned yet another CISAA Championship!

It was disappointing to end a season that had so much potential with back to back losses to UCC – the only team that beat us this year. The lesson here is that it is hard to be excellent at many things; excellence takes commitment, dedication, and plain-old practice. In the end we were good. However, being good was a lot fun – starting with some brilliant rugby at the CAIS tournament where the terrible weather conditions perfectly suited our forwards' ability to play slow-ball rugby. Our pack did an amazing job of working together to produce some spectacular driving mauls - including one in the CAIS finals which we took from a lineout on the 22, all the way into goal, and a CAIS Championship.

This season we made it to the championship game for the seventh straight year. Throughout the regular season we dominated every team in the league, except Hillfield. Going into the final we knew it was going to be a VERY tough game.

The first time we played Hillfield, two players received season-ending broken noses. Despite losing two of our better players, this hadn't stopped us from still getting to the final. I thought, if anyone else gets hurt in this game, we'll be fine.... But I was wrong! Just five minutes into the final, Our flyhalf Eduardo was injured and it was a very tough adjustment to play without him.

We struggled in the first half and Hillfield took a 17-0 lead. But instead of giving up, the team continued to play harder and tougher. We were clearly the dominant team by the end of the game, but we had run out of time to come out on top. The score ended 17-5.

I want to thank all of the players, Mr. Kowaltschuk and Mr. Shrimpton for such a fun season.

Before I go over our number one season highlight, I'd like to point out that the Jr. Track team is very much looking forward to the new track facilities next year. This will no doubt help our track & field athletes prepare for competition and give us a time in which to train - imagine, our own LJ, TJ and high jump pits...it will be great.

Like every other spring team, the weather was the Track teams greatest foe. In fact, over our five outdoor meets, we only saw the sun once and that was at the CISAA U12 championship meet...and that is our NUMBER ONE season highlight. Well, it was between that and the U14 relay team...but the sun on...other notable performances - even though we were a small team, we still managed to finish in the TOP 7 schools at all levels.

Our players were doing their best to be focused and improve. In coaching badminton there is often what I describe as a tipping point – that's when critical skills such as hitting deep clearing shots and net drops are finally mastered. When (if) it happens, you know we are in for an exciting season finish. That happened for this team with 2 weeks left before CISAA finals. Ranked 10th out of 12 schools for seeding purposes was humbling. I dare say that for a coach, one of the most gratifying experiences occurs when a player or team dig deep and reveal the renowned St. Andrew's College fighting spirit. Against the odds, your Varsity Badminton team finished an amazing 4th along with Crescent. And while the team championship was out of reach, I am pleased to report that GOLD medals were awarded for the second doubles team of Abner Liu and David Lau and SILVER medals for the first doubles team of JeongMin Seo and Mark Choi. Congratulations to our doubles teams!

I could spend the next two minutes trying to come up with funny one-liners about the team's fear of wearing goggles, or about Eric's attempt at using the Force to hit the shuttle without wearing his glasses or contacts (he did have goggles on, though). I even toyed with the idea of mentioning Matthew's uncanny ability (and determination) to balance a racquet on his face, or Andy Peng's ability to...well...be Andy Peng. I could, but then I decided: nah, what happens at U16 Badminton, stays at U16 Badminton. Your secrets are safe with my, guys...I got your back.

Once the fear of goggles was conquered, the team began to focus its attention on the CISSA finals in May. We had a pretty even record throughout the season, winning some match-ups handily, and others...well...we might as well have been balancing racquets on all of our faces. All joking aside, we went in to the tournament relatively confident in our chances to walk away with some medals; and we came close too. Were it not for some phenomenal national-player level talent, our first Singles Jae Woo was poised to take at least silver, and both Doubles teams came one win away from playing for a silver medal. Overall, I can confidently say we had a successful season as a team.

It didn't take long for the coaches of the Varsity Tennis team to realize that this years squad had big time potential. With several key players returning, and some solid depth coming up through the SAC tennis ranks, expectations were at an all time high to start the season. After an opening match win over defending CISAA champion UCC, St. Andrew's called on its incredible depth to win all of its remaining league ties and finish with a perfect 4-0 record. In a predominantly individual sport, our boys showed a true team effort as 10 out of our 11 team members won league matches. With the gold medal on the line, Alex Harris stepped up to the service line and bombed two incredible serves that would lead to the first OFSAA Gold medal in SAC history.

I'd like to start by thanking everyone on the team for their hard work and commitment. I could not have asked for a better or more dedicated group of players!

Despite all the challenges presented by the weather, we had a great time playing tennis.

In terms of performance, however, we did not fare so well. For a variety of reasons, such as GLC, field trips and other special events, I always seemed to be missing several of our top players. The outcome is predictable: we would not be as competitive as we could have been.

We won only 1 of our 5 regular season matches. However, the one we won was against Appleby College, who would finish first in our division. We were the only ones to do so, and this left me hopeful.

As always, it was a great experience to coach the Under 14 Tennis Team. Every year I am amazed by how quickly the season goes, ending before it ever fully got underway.

This year seemed particularly short as poor weather caused games to be cancelled, and caused practices to be few. Too few to take an "okay" team and turn it into a "great" team...though if given enough time, this team definitely had the potential. It was in our final match against Holy Trinity where I saw the players turn a corner. They started to fight harder for points, and as a result, they won more points. Doubles teams finally began to gel and they played aggressively, not allowing their opponents to get the upper hand. Unfortunately, this final match was indeed our final match as it was by one point (not one game) but one point that kept us from qualifying for the CISAA.

This was another successful year for the Senior Golf Team. At the end of September, we competed in the qualifier for OFSAA, finishing in third place as a team with Nick Crozier being invited to represent CISSA as an individual player at the provincial event held in Barrie.

This spring we played in our four tournament season which is composed of ten senior teams. Our poorest finish was fourth place and our best performance was first place. Finishing in second place overall qualified us to advance to the championship tournament held at Tangle Creek.

Throughout the season there was an elephant in the room, namely the reigning OFSAA champions, UCC. Because of exam commitments their players were unable to compete in three of our season's tournaments. We knew they were there and we knew they would be returning in time for the championship. They did not disappoint, winning the championship. We finished our season tying for third place with Crescent School, with Appleby College in second place.

We are losing four players this year and I would like to take the opportunity to thank Brett Allen, Kenny Hilton, Danny McConnell, and David King for their ongoing commitment to the team and the program.

This year's line-up featured new-comers Mathew Durisin, Bryce Johnson, Fernando Suinaga, Matt Yustin, and Andrew Begg, as well as veterans David Anderson, Mark Gallo, Liam Killops, and Kyle Zacharuk.

Our season got under way at Royal Niagara Golf Club, where we finished 2nd in the 12-team field with an average score from our top 4 scorers of 81.5. This was an impressive beginning in horrible weather conditions.

Station Creek Golf Club was the scene for week two's event, and the team responded with a victory on the day. David Anderson led our squad with a 78 and our team average improved to 79.25.

David Anderson led the way again in week 3, carding an eagle (2 under par on a hole) on his way to posting a brilliant 75 at Carlisle Golf and Country Club. Our over-all score improved again to 78.5, but St. Mike's was strong in their 1st place finish and we edged-out TCS for 2nd.

We hosted the 4th event on May 18th at the St. Andrew's Valley and Westview golf courses where we took advantage of the "home course advantage" in earning a tie for first with TCS. Marc Gallo had the team's low round with 78.

After four events, SAC was sitting in second place with 48 points – just two points behind St. Mike's (50).

Eight schools were invited to the championship tournament at Tangle Creek Golf and Country Club. The boys had a brilliant day. Fer Suinaga was our second man to score an eagle this season as he led the team in the final with a 75. Gallo fired a 76, Anderson 79, while Killops and Durisin were just over 80. St. Mike's also saved their best performance for the final and managed to win the day, with our Saints finishing a strong second with a team average of 78.5

Thanks also to Assistant Coach Mr. Brennagh for putting up with my frequent lacrosse rants, for coaching the juniors, and for looking after many of the details that help to keep things running smoothly with the team.

This year's MIP goes to a player that went from "who" to "WOW"! His development into one of the best high school goalies in Ontario was meteoric. Congratulations to MIP Chris Porter.

The MVP was a very tough decision as all three Captains are excellent players and certainly were critical to our team's success. The MVP however was the player who convincingly led the team in ground balls, caused turnovers, takeaways and also set a school record for longsticks in goals and points, including four goals in the OFSAA tournament. The 1st Lacrosse MVP is Pat Root.

Our U14 season began with a triumphant win against a KCS team at home. With battling rains, washed out fields, and other obstacles it took a couple of weeks to get into a regular flow of practice. Once we were able to get our fields and begin throwing more seriously and finding the right positions for some of the new players, we began to have more success coming our way. In the final week of play, on Wednesday our true team showed up and we took it to UCC by winning the first half off of the game. At the end of the first quarter it was tied and at the end of the third quarter it was 2-2. Unfortunately, a slightly more skilled passing game gave them a 5-3 win. While shaking hands after the game, their coach asked me "how did we score on St. Mike's?" – I told him what I had been telling my guys all season long – just shoot the damn ball low! We graduate a number of very good players and we were happy to inform Mr Reid and Mr Brennagh that they have some experienced ready to play stars joining them next year.

The team had a slow start, with very few players signing. At the first practice it did not look promising, with only a few grade 8's, and mostly grade 6's wanting to play. The coaches were patient and hopeful that more boys would come out to the second practice and that the new grade 6 players would develop. To our surprise and excitement, many of the grade 6's proved to be valuable to the team, and as luck was on our side a few more grade 8's appeared, and we were looking at one of our strongest teams in the school's history. We won our regular season games and went to our final tournament. We won all of our games in our division and went on to play St. Mike's for the gold medal. We were very proud to finish in second place knowing that we were in the running until the last out was recorded! Next year's team is looking good already with a few strong grade 7's returning and our group of excellent grade 6's. We look forward to playing on our new diamond and now not only will we intimidate other teams with the best uniforms in the league, but with the best facilities as well.

This baseball season can be summed up with one word: DISASTER. With the terribly wet spring we had this year, the baseball team had their first 14 games rained out. That's right 14. Our regular season consisted of two games. We won them both handily, but then faced number 1 seed St. Mike's in the league semi-final. Despite a great effort from our team, we ended up losing to the eventual league champs, 6-1.

One kind of funny thing that happened was on a game day the boys came up to me and Mr. Gurr and said, did you know our team captain is away. I said "There is no way Dave Head would abandon us on game day without telling us." One of the boys said, "He's in Colorado." I said, "No chance, he would have told us." One of the boys then checked our star's twitter account to find the phrase, "Loving Colorado, the Rockies are beautiful." Thankfully that game was rained out.

Probably the funniest moment of the season came at a rest stop in Grimsby. That's right, our season was so bad the highlight came at a gas station as we returned from a rainout in Buffalo. When boarding the bus, I asked one of our veteran guys, Adam Moody, to count the players on the bus. He said, "Got 11 coach". I asked "Did you count yourself because we should have 12?" He said, "I'll count again.....still got 11 coach." Another veteran, Matt Carter said, "Don't worry, Akshay is in the bathroom" and he pointed to the bathroom on the bus. I said to the bus driver Tom, "Tom, hit it, we're good to go!". Tom hit it, and we rolled...and rolled. Ten minutes later, while approaching the Burlington Skyway, Carter yelled to the front of the bus, "We forgot Akshay, we forgot Akshay!" I said, "You told me Akshay was in the bathroom," to which he responded, "yeah the bathroom at Tim Horton's!!" We turned around and picked up Akshay. T. Biasi

If there's one thing that I've learned over the last six years working with the triathlon team it is that triathletes are a special breed. It takes a certain kind of kid with a special attitude to show up for practice each and every day, knowing full well that they will be pushed well beyond their limits of what they think they can do and in the end, 'suffer'.

Now, sure, one could make the argument that all sports involve some kind of suffering, but it is a unique trait to be able to motivate yourself when fans are scattered few and far between on an isolated section of the bike course, or you look your watch and you realize that you've been racing for over two hours straight, as hard as you can, and you still can't see the finish line.

The Graduates

Nicknames: Adams McGavin, CAM, McGoobar

Activities: Head prefect, Captain of Junior Varsity Soccer, MVP, Captain of Varsity Squash, Varsity Rugby, Red Star Senior Staff Cadet, Lieutenant, Wind Ensemble, Middle School House Captain, Outreach, Robotics, SASSAW trip to Peru, Battlefields Tour... Everyone talks about their first time driving up the not-so-gently curving St. Andrew's College driveway and walking through the doors enthusiastically. I do not remember that moment, but I imagine that was not my reaction. Little did I know, however, the last seven years here, surrounded by an outstanding group of peers, has shaped my future, my character, and created countless memories. From the sports field to the classroom; the mountains of Peru to the battlefields of France; we have been together through it all as Andrean Brothers. All I can say is thank you to all that have made this the amazing experience it has been. Whatever we have accomplished, done, or experienced is nothing without the people around us, and I have never been surrounded by a greater group of young men. I wish you all the best.

Christopher ADAMS-MCGAVIN

If you asked me if I thought I would be where I am today, I would be both astonished and surprised, as I would never have expected to accomplish such a substantial amount in such a short period of time. As a newcomer to SAC in Grade 10, I was unaware that one day, I would be a dignified scholar and a three term varsity athlete, yet since the day I walked through the gates of this school, wonderful opportunities have been given to me and I can only thank my parents for allowing me to take advantage of all these possibilities. St. Andrew's College has helped strengthen every one of my abundant assets, whether it is in the classroom, sports fields, or cadets, my personal attributes have benefited from the extraordinary assistance provided by the school. I will never forget the great teammates and teams I played on throughout my time at SAC, as I loved being a part of the volleyball, squash, and golf team, sports I hope to enjoy endlessly, making great friends along the way. I have had so many great times at this school, no matter what the topic, the moments I had with my friends will never be forgotten. It is true what they say about the brotherhood, you're tied together, and you make great bonds, something I did, as my friends have helped my time at SAC become much more enjoyable. St. Andrew's has helped me become a better person, and I am ever so thankful. Thanks

Brett ALLEN

Activities: New House Company Commander, Namibia summer 2010, Turks and Caicos Scuba Diving 2010, Battle field tour 2009, Arts Council, Focus head of sound tech, U16 Football, Alpine Skiing, Triathlon, Weight training
I have been attending SAC for the last 7 years. I have learned many useful and interesting things, from Mr. Tsiros, Mr. Biasi, Mr. Shrimpton and Mr. Stewart. Each has a different take on life and has shown me many different perspectives. Some of my most memorable experiences at SAC would be the Battlefields Tour of 2009 with Mr. Stewart. I had always heard of the men who had fought for our freedom but could never fathom the true impact of war, until I was standing on Juno Beach or overlooking Vimy Ridge. Another incredible experience was in March of 2010 on the scuba diving expedition with Major McCue and Mr. Walden. I learned how to scuba dive and saw things I had never seen before. One of the most unforgettable of my experiences was this past summer when I went with SASSAW and Mr. Service to Namibia to refurbish a local school. It was truly a life changing experience that can't be expressed in words. When I came to SAC in grade 6 I was a shy young boy. With the help of the community and all my experiences I feel that I am on my way to becoming a well developed man. These experiences over the last 7 years have had a huge impact on my life; I have to thank my parents for giving me this once in a lifetime experience. Without them none of this would have been possible. I love you Mom and Dad, thanks for everything.

Dylan AMAR

Activities: Residential life council Vice President, Sifton house warrant officer, Macdonald house captain, Sifton House captain, Student Leadership Group (SLG)

Accomplishments: Headmaster's honour roll, Silver medal Varsity Football, Second place (Silver medal) U16 soccer

Right from the first day at St. Andrew's I knew I would have a stellar experience, one I would not have anywhere else, and I was right. For four years at SAC I had the best education taught by the finest teachers I had the opportunity to come across. SAC gives the students an opportunity to experience the Andrean brotherhood through social events, boarding, as well as sports. I gave back to the community by being a part of the Residential life council, Student lead group, house captain and cadet leader, all of which were and still are for me a superb experience of leadership, a trait St. Andrew's college is looking to build in our transformation into a complete man, the well-rounded citizen. I seized the opportunity to play team sports, Varsity football and rugby, become an Andrean, as well as made great friends – the most important thing that I accomplished at St. Andrew's College.

I want thank my parents for giving me the opportunity for such enjoyable experiences, my teachers for sharing their knowledge, my advisor and coaches and of course my friends.

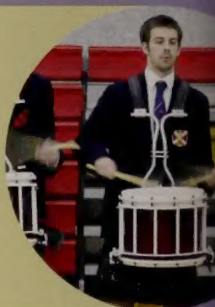

Edward ASCAN

Nicknames: The Bearjew, Chicken Legs

Activities: Prefect, First Football Towel Boy, Lead Drummer, Battlefields Tour, Holland 2010, Spare Enthusiast, Mathlete, Arts Council.

Six years have flown by incredibly fast. I want to take this opportunity to thank the people that have made these six long years some of my most memorable. I want to thank my parents and sister for their constant support. I want to thank Mr. Shrimpton for his wisdom and insight. You really made my last year run smoothly. I'd like to thank Mr. McCue for helping me develop into the musician I am today. I want to thank the folks up at University Counselling for all of the useful meetings throughout the year. Lastly, I'd like to acknowledge the boysies. We conquered the beaches of Normandy, downed a few in Amsterdam, and got through the tough times together. I love you all like my brothers.

Sonny ATKINS

I've only been at SAC for 4 years, in those 4 years I experienced things I will never forget. From the Cadet parades, the names of the Ramsay company leaders, the rattlesnake point trip, The Battlefields tour of 2009 to the Grade 12 base Borden trip. During my first years at St. Andrew's I was pretty quiet, I had yet to get used to the rules of the school, both the unofficial and official ones. I ended up doing so many things wrong, and three months later I was pretty widely known for all the wrong reasons. Quite frankly I don't think I've changed much since Grade 9. St. Andrew's was about finding myself, what my real interests and limits were and how I could use them to benefit myself and hopefully my peers.

Calvin AU

2 years—it is not only a number but a symbol of growing, becoming mutual and developing the personality which paves the future of your life. For an old guy, 2 years will only take a minor position in his memory. For a child, it's a period which he can build up his basic body shape and organ. However, as for me, these 2 years are the memory that last for my life. I came to St Andrew's in 2009 and this was definitely a turning point in my life. Just recall my memories, I can still feel the anxious and frightening feeling when I first stepped into this school. Two football fields, two gyms with five basketball nets, 4 different style of dorms, and an enormous gallery all seemed fresh to a youngster who studied in a school with 2 basketball courts before. "Change yourself, be part of it" A teacher of mine once reminded me before heading to Canada. I am passionate involving into the activities in St Andrew's College and some of them were rarely held in Hong Kong such as the Homecoming Dance, Football Tournament or the MacPherson Hockey Game etc. Roaring with the crowd, cheering for the team, depressing when we lost, the brotherhood spirit were revealed and it will be staying in my heart forever. Apart from the activities, I really like to say thank you to all the teachers who devote their effort to deliver their knowledge to us. I especially need to thank my advisor, Dr. Evans, who took care of me since I arrived at this school. Also, Mr. Stewart and Mr. Burton have made their best to give me a comfortable living environment. I, with my full heart, admire them for letting me experience 2 years of unforgettable life here in St Andrew's.

Danny AU

Nicknames: D-Barks, Barks, Bark-show, Beauty, Danno

Activities: 1st Hockey, 1st Floorball, 1st Rugby

My short time at St. Andrew's has been nothing short of an accomplishment, I have really excelled in this school, and it is thanks to the teachers who work just as hard as us, and sometimes work overtime at late night sessions to prepare us for a test the next day. All the memories in the past two years will outweigh any memories in the previous. The boys will always be my buds, and I will always cherish their friendship throughout my whole life. I have met so many beauties here and I will always remember this. Special thanks to my parents, Paul and Mary, who gave me this opportunity to come here with their gracious generosity and support over these tough and rewarding two years. It is all coming to an end, and I am very excited to start the next part of my life.

Dan BARKER

I have enjoyed my time at St. Andrew's College. I am especially thankful to my father, stepmom, and teachers for supporting me throughout this seven year career at the school. As a Prefect, Community Service Council Vice President, Team Canada Debater, and engaged student I have challenged myself to be the "complete man and well rounded citizen." I've met dozens of life-long friends and brothers who have made school a little less painful as it tends to be during busy times. I'm especially grateful for the friends I've had who are lifers too, and were my classmates since Grade six. Thanks to all my fellow Andreans, I hope our paths cross someday wherever they may lead.

Jerome BIROO

Nicknames: Busch, Buschi, D-Busch, Buschmann (never heard Dennis though)

Activities: Member of the SLG Team, Admission Club, Flavell floor captain, Sergeant of the St. Andrew's Cadet Corps, Member of Weight training, 1st Hockey Manager, Recreational Soccer

Now being an old boy, I love to look back on my exciting and challenging last two years at St. Andrew's College. I went through a couple of high and lows, starting with the fact that my English improved from the point where I couldn't place an order at Tim Horton's, to the point that nothing but my remaining German accent reminds me of those days. Today I have a 92% total average and I can truly say, that St. Andrew's taught me a lot more than just academics; St. Andrew's successfully fulfilled its mission statement and created another well rounded citizen. I will never forget my good friends Nelson, Dylan, Eddie, Nate and roommates Estian and Noxon. Thank you guys for all the fun and great moments! I'd also like to thank my mum for making all this possible!

Dennis BUSCHMANN

Nicknames: Carr, Carrship

Activities: First Rugby Captain, First Football, Athletic Council President, Pipes and Drums

I am proud to be part of the renowned group of "lifers". Looking back it couldn't possibly have gone by faster. From the first day of Grade six till the end of twelve St. Andrew's has been my second home. SAC has shaped the person I am today, through the unbelievable friendships I have formed and memorable experiences I have had. I will never be able to thank Mr. Shrimpton enough for introducing me to Rugby and always being there to guide me. I have to thank my parents for working very hard to send me here and supporting me all the way. I will always remember the good times on the California Rugby Tour, the Holland Pipes & Drums trip, and the many others in between. I thank Mr. McCue for being the best and most friendly person I have ever met. To 'The Dream Team' and the boys, I am going to miss you guys; we had some unforgettable memories. We will always be a brotherhood of Andreans.

Andrew CARR

Activities: Wind Ensemble, Robotics, Mandarin Club Co. Founder, Math Club, SacPras, SLG

The time in St. Andrew's has a tremendous impact for my future. During these four years, I have met many incredible people in different cultures and races who I truly believe our friendship will last for a long time. The school is truly amazing even though I haven't really thought about it before Grade 12.

Daniel CHIANG

I think coming to St. Andrew's College was one of the best decisions I have made. By coming to this place my life had changed. I started to rethink about what I must do with my life and made plans for the future. I faced a lot of difficulties while I was here, a lot of challenges that tried to bring me down and stop me from achieving the goals I have set. But I believe it was those challenges that have made me an even stronger person than I was before. I don't believe that I have become a complete man yet, but by coming to this school and learning new things, I think I have become closer in becoming one.

In the school I was part of the Wind Ensemble and played the flute. I was the captain of swim team and I broke the record for the 50 meter Butterfly.

I think my time in St. Andrew's will always affect the way I think and live my life in the future.

Daniel CHO

I have only been in this school for 2 years but these 2 years would always stay in my memory. It was really different to be in a boarding school. I thought it won't be any different but just living in the school. I remember at the start of my first year I use to wake up at 7am every morning and take my shower before class. After a month people thought I was stupid to wake up this early and shower before class. All the other guys wake up just to be on time for sign in and chapel. And now on I have never waked up earlier than 8am. The best was sleep in breakfast for all the grads, then when it's chapel off I could have a good sleep. it was a really special 2 years for me, living in the BEST house on campus and getting to meet new friends, I know I will miss this school next year.

Ron CHOW

Since I started attending SAC in grade 10, I have loved every second of it. When I came here, I was a member of varsity basketball and soccer, but decided to take the opportunity to be involved in more. In my time here at SAC, I have been on numerous clubs and committees such as the athletic council and res life committee. In my grade 12 year, I was honored to be a Prefect, a perfect way to end my SAC career. I have made friends that will last a life time here at SAC, such as my roommates Tommy Kim and Alex Adams. I would also like to thank the Stevo Reel and his family for having me over practically every weekend since grade 10. I would also like to thank the whole faculty and staff for being supportive, especially Mr. Godkin and Mr. Manning. I would like to thank guys like David Head, Will Egl, and Richard Occhipinti for making friendships that will last forever. Finally, I would like to thank my parents for sending me here. SAC has truly changed me as a person, and I will miss this place greatly!

Nicholas CHRETIEN

Nicknames: Estian, Estie, big bear, African, Estebon, Coetzer.

Activities: 1st Rugby, 1st Football, P90x Weight Training team, Debating club '10, Robotics Club Member of team ARES, Represented Canada in International RoboCup Jnr, Staff Cadet Red Star, Residential Life Council, SLG Computer Science help.

When I came from South Africa on a trip to choose schools I was feeling down, having to leave all my friends behind again was not something I looked forward to. The first few schools that I looked at were alright, but they didn't quite fit me, they seemed too soft, and that's the only way I can explain it. When I came to this school it announced its presence immediately, the huge campus, the way people wore their suits and the way people talked when they introduced themselves. I know it sounds cliché but when I drove into the gates and when I came in for open house I was set on this school. Since that day I've liked SAC more and more, and because of the guys that I met and the activities I got myself involved in, SAC helped me discover who I was and for that I am thankful.

Estian COETZER

It's been quite a ride. I appreciate all the times with the boys, it has been a pleasure meeting every single one of you. I am grateful for those who put effort into shaping me into who I am today. It wasn't always easy, but the end result feels pretty good. Good luck to all the Grads, be strong. Cooker

Casey COOK

Since coming to St. Andrew's I've been able to learn many things. By facing the challenges of heavy course loads and hectic time commitments, I adapted to become the well-rounded citizen our school aims for. I will miss all the friends I've made, and the 1st hockey team especially.

Kyle COUGHLIN

It's hard to believe that these past 7 years have gone by so fast. It has been a great experience having met so many new people and building friendships that will last a lifetime. I want to thank my parents for the sacrifices they made to give me the opportunity to attend St. Andrew's. I would also like to thank all of my teachers who made my time at SAC so much fun especially, Ms. Chasson for helping me to improve as a musician, winning Triple Gold at MusicFest 3 years in a row, and for all the great band trips, Mrs. Ramon for all the years coaching the curling team highlighted by our trip to OFSAA, and finally my advisor Mr. Cowell for his guidance and help getting me through high school.

Ryan COVERDALE

Accomplishments: Smith House, Soccer, Alpine Skiing, Cadets I have enjoyed my last 4 years at St. Andrew's. To the good times with friends to the times on the fields I will forever remember SAC. Good luck to everyone in the graduating class I hope you can be the best you can be. I'd also like to thank my mother and father for sending me to St. Andrew's

My time here at St. Andrews has been full of so many great times. Since the first day of grade 9 I knew this place was going to be something special. I've had so many unreal times with the boys, including: Beauty road trips with hockey and lacrosse, Sov's stories, JV Puck, Biasi's Legendary Classes, Carol Service, winning CISAA yearly, Winning Cross Country and scoring Natural Hat tricks. St. Andrews is truly a special place and the best decision I have ever made was choosing to enroll at SAC. I would like to thank everyone who has helped me throughout my career, the teachers, and my coaches Mr. Manning and Mr. Reid, and my Housemaster Mr. Perrier, Mr. Biasi (#1 Advisor in the world), university counseling and the staff in admissions. Throughout my 5 years here, one individual who was my mother away from home was Mrs. Perrier. She does an unbelievable amount of work for everyone in Memorial House and especially first hockey. Whatever you needed Mrs. P was always the one to turn to, I am truly grateful for all that you have done for me! SAC has definitely shaped me into the complete man and well rounded citizen. I am really going to miss this special place and all the times I shared with the beauties. Love you boys.

Six years and one month, what does that number mean to me? To me, it means a lot of good times, lessons learned, new brothers and mistakes made. Throughout my time at St. Andrew's College I have learned many life lessons that will help me in the future, and I learned many of these lessons the hard way. Throughout these years there has been one constant in my life, I would love to thank my Mom for her hard work and dedication to my education. Along with that I would love to thank Mr. Gurr and Mr. Carroll for not only being superlative football coaches but for also helping me develop into a complete man. If it weren't for these people I wouldn't be back today where I am. These many years at St. Andrew's College have helped me to develop maturity and a sense of where I want to go in my future, for this I am forever grateful. For anyone reading this I would like to provide a simple message, learn from every mistake you make and never repeat that same mistake.

Resume: Deputy Head Prefect, Arts Council, Andean Life Council, 1st Football, Basketball, and Track, Middle School House Captain.
It's been a fun six years at St. Andrew's College. I've really enjoyed my time here. I'll miss suiting up in the red and white and being around the campus. I have to thank all my friends not only for some fun times, but for everything I learned from them especially some special teammates Nick Chretien and Akshay Wadera. I'd like to thank all the teachers who taught me, they were all amazing to me, in particular Mr. T, Mr. Godkin, Mr. Ludwig and my advisor, Mr. Service. Finally, I need to thank my mom, my dad, my brother and my sister. I love you guys more than anything and I'm forever in your debt.

William EGI

I am so proud that I was able to study in the Andean community where everyone became part of my family and life. I would like to thank Ms. Wendy Pries for making such a positive impact on my life. I would also like to thank every one of the faculty and staff for dedicating themselves to helping and encouraging every Andean to do their best, academically, and athletically. St. Andrew's is truly an incredible place where the spirit of brotherhood grows each day. It is a community where "the complete man" is formed.

Jason FANG

It is only when being able to look back on these seven years that I realize exactly how much St. Andrew's means to me. I thank St. Andrew's for the many opportunities made available to me. Above all, I would like to thank St. Andrew's for its community, more specifically its sense of brotherhood. One thing I am sure of is the impact that St. Andrew's has had on every aspect of my life. I would like to thank my parents and my friends, you made St. Andrew's the place it is.

Stefan FERRARO

I would like to thank my parents for sending me to St. Andrew's College. Without them I would not have met the people who I now call my brothers. Over these seven years I have gathered friends and memories that will last a lifetime. From walking on the beaches of Normandy, to sleeping under the stars in the African desert, I can truly say that we lived through a lot together. I could not have done it without you boys - Thank you. I would like to thank the SAC community for exposing me to incredible experiences which provided me with new perspectives on life. Ultimately I believe that through these past seven years I have become part of an eternal lasting brotherhood with whom I shared many moments with. Thus this league of extraordinary gentlemen stand together, united, ready to go out in the world, and change it once more, forever.

Benjamin FOCKTER

After two years at SAC, I will always remember the group of beauties on the hockey team. Living in Memorial House has been a great experience and I would like to give a special thank you to Mrs. P for all of her help. I will always look back on the two successful hockey seasons, which were only possible with the dedication of the coaches, staff and players. My respect and appreciation goes out to many of the teachers that allowed me to excel in the classroom. Grade 12 Carol Service will never be forgotten- TDact, Chef C, Bill Dude. I leave with the question of, Johnson what do you think was in that Danish?

Geoffrey GALLAGHER

I have been at St. Andrew's for four years in Smith House. When I first arrived, the school took a little getting used to. The atmosphere and what is expected of you is different from any other school. I have enjoyed my time here being involved in things like the Marksmanship team, Wind Ensemble, as well as various sports. I would like to thank my parents for the opportunity to go to St. Andrew's. I have tried to make the most of my time here and take advantage of every opportunity available to me.

Torrey GLENDINNING

Arriving at St. Andrew's College two years ago on my first day of school seems just like yesterday. Taking a step back and looking at myself now, I'm a completely different person, for the better, because of this extraordinary place. St. Andrew's has provided me with many opportunities that weren't available before I arrived at the school, which I'm greatly thankful for. And most importantly, I'm proud to say that I'm part of the graduating Class of 2011 and will always be an Andrean at heart.

Everyone has a photographic memory; some just don't have any film. Living at SAC was much different than living in Jamaica, but I can honestly say that I had some good times and made many friends. I do not regret anything I ever said or did during my time at SAC because the things I did made me the person I am today. Big up to all my friends: Josh, Toby, Joey, Colin, Sapheer and the Perrier's for helping me through all the tough times. Shout out to the Islanders and Memorial House. Peace out.

What can I say? I have been at this "fine" institution since Gr.6 and although I have spent my fair share of time in the office, or in Sunday detention I can't say it has been a terrible experience. I have met way too many amazing people, students and teachers alike. Without my family and friends, I don't think I would have been able to keep coming back year after year. I would like to say thanks to all of the people who have helped me during my time at St. Andrews, and would like to give a shout out to all of my boys.

Activities: Co-captain of Fencing team, recreational soccer, floor captain of Flavell House, head of Gold star, lieutenant of Flavell House, FOCUS, guitar club, marksman ship, math club.

I attended St. Andrew's College in September of 2008. What I realized about this school was there were tremendous amount of opportunities provided in lots of different areas. I joined the fencing team and two years later, I am one of the two co-captains of the team. I attended Silver Star as a corporal in Grade 10 and now I am in charge of Gold star and being promoted lieutenant of Flavell House. I am one of the floor captains in Flavell House. Also, I was part of SAC dramatic society. I participated in plays in the "FOCUS" festival.

Throughout my years at St. Andrew's I have turned into a new man. Before attending SAC I was a straggler, but this wonderful school turned me into a leader and someone my peers look up to. I learned that skipping class and slacking would come back to bite you in the end with tier-two gatings and office visits. My advisor and best friend Mr. Shrimpton helped me along like a father pulling his kid around in a little red wagon. I will always look back on the Cadet program and realize just how important it was in rounding me as a student. Signing off now, I'd like to thank all that helped me throughout my years at SAC, and I look forward to sending my kids here.

I sit here writing this grad comment in complete shock, being at this school for seven years. St. Andrew's has given me numerous brothers, and numerous opportunities, and for that I am truly grateful. First and foremost, I would like to thank my parents for giving me the opportunity to go to St. Andrew's. I will always cherish my unreal times at this school. I'm so proud to have spent all these moments with my good buddies. Have your brother's back just as he would have yours.

When I first came to the school in Grade 10 I did not know what to expect, what friends I would make? How would I fit in? And how would I like it? Well all of my questions have been answered and quickly; these last four years have been the best years of my life. I would like to thank all the people that have made this experience possible, Mr. Biasi, Mr. Gurr, Mr. McHenry, Mr. Josselyn, and all of the legends, DG, Harris, Chretien but mostly my parents! I love you guys.

And the journey has come to an astonishing end. I cannot believe the last seven years of my life at SAC has come to a finish. It feels as if yesterday I was coming in for my orientation and naive of how the next seven years would unroll. I can truly say I have enjoyed these seven years and would not change anything in hindsight. I would like to take this time to thank my parents for giving me this tremendous opportunity to attend St. Andrew's. I would also like to thank my brother who was there for me five out of seven of the years. A quick shout out to Mr. Service, Mrs. Rose-Donahoe, Mr. McCue, Mr. Inglis and Ms. Richer. Most importantly I would like to thank my boys – and you know who you are – for making these last years possible. As I look back at all the memories, there is nothing I can do but smile. Collingwood, Frank and the Battlefields Tour, cottages, and many other countless memories, and the nights that weren't suppose to be remembered. It is sad to say that our time here has come to an end, but there are many more years of memories to come. Now is when the party begins, keep in touch, and stay classy, 2011.

It's weird for me to think about what my life would be like if I had never come to St. Andrew's College. I chose to come here four years ago, and it remains the best decision I have ever made. From academics, to athletics, to the people I've met here, this school has changed my life for the better in so many ways. I've become a much better student and athlete during my time here, but most importantly, I've become a much better person. I've truly grown and matured here at SAC; my academic average has improved dramatically, I've learned to be more open to new opportunities, and to enjoy the little things in life. I've realized that it's the little things about this place that make me love it, from cadets to chapel to Prize Day. There is little doubt in my mind that some of the things that I have been exposed to here have changed me permanently. I'd like to just pass one piece of advice onto those who will pass through SAC after me; take advantage of the opportunities that are presented here. These will be some of the best days of your life, and the opportunities you have here are like no other. Don't just sit back and not get involved, because as you get closer to the end of your time here, you'll regret it. Coming here has changed my life, and I will forever be an Andrian.

This is my third year at SAC and I treat St. Andrew's College as my second home. SAC is a unique school and it has given me valuable memories and unforgettable experiences. In my first year at SAC, my teachers helped me a lot in all my courses and my SAC brothers were so friendly so I could experience a wonderful school life. I loved my second and my third years at SAC so much because there were many different activities to enjoy and many new boys joined this big SAC family. This is my last year in SAC and I would like to say thank you to the teachers who have helped me a lot in this last three years. Thank you

St. Andrew's College has been more than just a school to me; it has been a wonderful home for 7 years. SAC has provided me with enormous opportunity to help me develop into a complete man and a well rounded citizen. I will always cherish my time here as I have made many incredible memories. Being a lifer, I will surely miss hanging out with my Andrian brothers everyday and the amazing times I have had in Sifton House. I would like to thank the faculty here for having the patience to guide and assist me to mature as a student and as a young man. Particularly, I need to thank Mr.Carroll for being such a great advisor and Mr.Ramon for dealing with me as the Housemaster. Moreover, during my time here, I have made many incredible friends from all over the world. I'd especially like to thank the boys who have been through the good and bad times with me; you guys really made these years special and memorable. Above all, I need to thank my parents. The sacrifices they made for me is unimaginable. I cannot thank them enough for sending me here. I have truly enjoyed my time here and I am grateful for everything St. Andrew's College has done for me. It has been a great ride; I look forward to visiting SAC in the years to come.

From Bayview Secondary to SAC, it's been an unreal four years of high school. One of my favorite things about SAC was being on the basketball squad since I came here in grade 11. From the practices to the games to the overnight tournaments, we were ballin' out all day, every day. Over the last couple years you all have been the best teammates someone could ask for. I know you guys are going to be doing big things and I'll never forget all the good times. You guys are family and don't ever forget that. I don't know where life is going to take me, but I know I'll never lose the friendships I've made here. Shout-out to Josh and Akshay for being my main dudes since day 1. To Larry, Yan-sauce and Jamal, I know you guys are going to hold it down for the ball team next year. Class of 2011 is going to be something special. To my boys, work hard but play even harder. Let your belief be stronger than everyone else's doubt. Most importantly, dream big and don't let anyone stop you from doing what you want. Do it up big!

I have been at SAC for four years and it was one of the best decisions my parents made. I have enjoyed my time here thoroughly, and it has developed my confidence in myself and who I am. When I first came I was two years younger than everyone else in my grade and was very aware of it (hence my nickname of twelve). However, four years down the line I feel comfortable with my position in the school and the friends that I have made. This school, which I first viewed as a prison, has now become a community which has developed my skills and abilities.

My time at SAC has been a brief 2 years but 2 years that has changed my outlook on my future. University was always the next step for me, although now my expectations for myself have been raised to new heights. A special thanks to Coach Gurr and Coach Carroll for giving me the tools I needed to perform at the university football level next year and also to the boys for the football memories. Of course I cannot forget the Perriers. Thank you!

I have been a student of St. Andrew's for four years, and in this period of time, I was able to accomplish many things I never dreamed of doing before. The list of extracurricular activities I participated in includes debating and public speaking, DECA internationals, model UN in New York, participating in the Writing and Publications Council, contributing two essays in the Independent, representing the school in a leadership conference held in Calgary, starting the U16 football championship game, and the SAC robotics and programming team. St. Andrew's has led me to become a very well rounded person, combining academics and athletics with extracurriculars and 425 community service hours, and it has ultimately led me to acceptances by some great universities in the US. I want to thank my mother for sending me to St. Andrew's for all of my memorable experiences. I also want to thank Mr. Prezents for being the best teacher I've had over the past three years; however, all of the teachers I've had were awesome. In addition, my advisor has been very supportive during my times here as well. It's truly been a memorable four years at St. Andrew's.

Comment: Although I have been in SAC only for 2 years, I have to say that I really had fun here. All my friends, teachers, activities and Cadets here are unforgettable experience in my entire life. They all also guide me to build a complete man. Nonetheless, the food in Dining Hall really impresses me. I really do not enjoy the food here, and I think it becomes worse and worse. Thus, I have found a lot of great Asian restaurants that satisfy my tastes. I think this is a good sign because I satisfied my stomach. I love this city and everything in this school except Dining Hall.

Back in grade 10 when I first came to this school I was completely new to this environment. Fortunately people in SAC were kind and friendly and I was able to adapt the style of living and learning here. It was a different learning experience compared to schools back in Hong Kong, where I came from. Here, we have lots of leadership opportunities provided, different kinds of activities were hosted, and you are exposed to so many different kinds of cultures. There are various ways for you to enhance yourself and get ready for the future. I've also met a lot of friends that can truly help me when I'm in trouble and that meant a lot to me. I would like to thank this place for providing me such wonderful three years of high school.

Comment: This is my fourth year in SAC and it is also my graduating year. I have been through tough times when I first came to Canada because I had to live in an absolutely new environment. However, SAC helped me get through homesick and it becomes my second home. SAC means so much to me because SAC taught me a lot. I learn how to be independent; I learn how to respect others; and I learned how to become a well-rounded citizen. I am proud of being an Andrean and I will never forget the good times and experiences that I had in SAC. Since this is my last year in SAC, I have something to say to my younger Andrean brothers, "Enjoy and cherish every single minute that you have in SAC; I am sure SAC will become a memory that you will never forget after you graduate".

Jonathan KEUNG

First, I would like to thank Mr. and Mrs. Perrier for all that they have done for my years in Memorial House and helping me through several rough patches throughout my career at St. Andrew's. Then there was my grad year and I finally earned my scholar's tie with Mr. Paluch's English help and Ms. Richer's Math help. This year started with smiles and laughter but it came to an abrupt halt when Mrs. Kowaltschuk passed away on January 8th. Not only was she my neighbour in Mac House, she was a very sweet woman who never had a frown on her face. I will really miss her.

When I first came to SAC in grade 7, I didn't think I was in Canada because I was in 3 men room in MAC house with 2 Mexicans and since then, I had two other Mexican roommates. Instead of improving my ESL English, I improved progressively in Spanish and earned Spanish prize in grade 10. Over the past 6 years, I have made great lifelong friends. I also met so many great teachers like Ms. Bilton. In terms of Athletics, I warmed enough benches, filled out enough bottles and got chirped enough times for my unathleticism. However, I enjoyed every moment at SAC. There were obviously up and down moments but I feel that these experiences have raised me to become an even greater person. I also need to thank my parents for spending sooooo much money for me to go to this school for the past 6 years and also Reels and Occhipintis for having me over on every weekends and made feel like I was at home. I also thank Adams for giving me a nice black eye.

St. Andrew's College was a place where I learned more about not giving up, about teamwork, and responsibility. The school was challenging for me in a positive way. Challenge made me excel on my school obligations and to be a well-rounded person. I am pleased to graduate as a Andrean.

Having lived on the campus of SAC for my entire life, I have only been attending St. Andrew's since Grade Eight. The time that I have spent here has been amazing. I have simply had the time of my life. I have made so many great friends and I enjoyed every day and every class that I spent with them. Not only did I get a great education; have great opportunities like travelling to Namibia with SASSAW, and developing a love for lacrosse, I developed friendships that will last a lifetime. Ritchie, Mulder, Grant, Chris A-M, Steven, Alex, and the Rush boys, to name just a few; thanks for the memories! I would like to thank Mr. Service and Mrs. Perrier for being my advisors through my career at SAC, and thanks to all my teachers who helped me through my academic journey. Finally, I want to thank my parents for sacrificing much to allow me to attend such a great institution.

St. Andrew's College truly is not an ordinary place. It has been an exceptional experience for me that changed me as a whole. When I first came to St. Andrew's I was unmotivated and was just coasting my way through life. I am now a hard working and responsible individual who cares about what my future brings. SAC is not just a school to me; it is a place where I have spent almost all of my time during the past four years due to the fact that school doesn't just end at 3:30. Activities and collaboration amongst my peers continues for me till 11:00pm and it is very rewarding. SAC is an experience and the memories I have made through teams I have participated on, clubs I am involved with and special school events, will stay with me forever. I regret that it took me a couple years to take full advantage of the experiences SAC has to offer so it is something I would encourage my younger peers to take advantage of, sooner rather than later. My graduating class has made my time at SAC very interesting and many friends have come and gone throughout my time here. It is these people who made this place as amazing as it was for me, and because of that I would like to thank them. I would also like to thank Ms. Thorne and Mr. Service not only both being amazing teachers but also a great advisor and Housemaster to me.

Being an Andrean for three years, all the experiences that I have had are unforgettable and invaluable. I remember when I first arrived St. Andrew's College in Grade 10, I was a New Boy who knew nothing about SAC. While SAC offers me the chance to reach my full potential, I have found/developed myself in different aspects of student life, such as academics, leadership, music, sports, cadets, friendship etc. Meanwhile, being one of the leaders within the Chinese community motivates me to extend my leadership skills and to serve for my peers. From the first day of school till now, I have nothing to regret while I know that these three years have been fabulous for me. I have met so many friends and I have learnt so many things that I would not have learned in other school. Here, I would like to thank my parents for the opportunity to come to SAC, and the teachers who have supported and walked me through these three years, especially my advisor Mr. Giel, and my housemaster Mr. and Mrs. Perrier. "Quit ye like men, be strong," the school's motto which I will never forget.

 It has been four years. I've experienced things that have not been able to experience before I came to this school, or maybe will not be able to, after I graduate. I was able to develop leadership abilities after numerous leadership opportunities given. In this school, I was able to interact with different people from different places, and it's a valuable experience for me as well. I learned different kinds of bad words in different language - Korean, Spanish... etc. Overall, it's an irreplaceable school, and I'm proud to be graduating at this school. I'll always remember this quotation "Quit ye like man, be strong."

I will truly miss my time spent here at SAC. This has been a great and surprising experience that I will never forget. I will miss all the good times with the boys and hope to keep the friendships I've made here forever. I'd like to thank all my coaches, and my parents for their hard work, support and dedication for the past two years. I would also would like to thank Mrs. P and Marnie for their endless efforts with First hockey.

In 2004, my parents asked me if I wanted to go to St. Andrews. I did not like the idea of an all boys school at the time, but I reluctantly agreed to go. I entered the school in Grade 7 (2005), and struggled to adjust to the workload because the school that I came from had little to no workload at all. I was amazed at how many sports/activities were available to choose from. I was always sure to have something to occupy my time. This busy schedule also helped me develop my study skills and my work habits. If it weren't for my parents, teachers, and developed study skills, I would not have achieved the marks that I have today for which I will always be very grateful.

I would first like to thank my parents for the sacrifices they made to allow me to attend SAC. I would like to thank Mr. Biasi, Mr. Foote, Mr. Manning, Mr. Brennagh, Mr. MacPherson, and Mr. Reid for coaching me during my time at St. Andrew's. I would lastly like to thank Mr. McHenry for being my advisor for 4 years.

James LAPPIN

In my three years at SAC, I feel like it has been forever. From my eldest brother, Simon Lau, to my second brother, Tony Lau, I have familiarized myself with the SAC hallways and life. I have acquainted myself with the gaming that went on in the old computer room. I acquainted myself with the name I was given, Tony/Simon junior. I acquainted myself with the many sports available for me to explore. I am happy to say that as I leave the gates of St. Andrew's College for university, I will feel accomplished. In my time at SAC, I have participated in U-16 Soccer, U-16 Badminton as a Captain, MVP, Co-Coach, Varsity Fencing, Varsity Badminton, President of Chess Club, President and Founder of Go Club, Mentor of New House, Member of Mandarin Club, and Member of Computer Science Club. At no other school could I accomplish this and apply new vocabulary to my everyday language. Unfortunately, the words: pipe, cram, dust, slit, muck, newboy, and chirp will not work at university. I realize that as I leave the school, I will definitely miss the atmosphere between the students and the teachers. I would like to thank all my friends who have made my time at St. Andrew's a memorable one. I will not forget any of the great times I've had. I would like to list the names, but there are so many that have made my life at SAC great (you know who you are!). Whether it be gaming in the library or simply chirping each other, I will never forget the great times I've had at SAC.

David LAU

Looking for me? MacHouse Library. Officially, I am rooted to there. Unofficially, it's my second room. But don't get me wrong, common misconception—I DON'T STUDY ALL THE TIME. I only stay there because my spot is in the library, classical conditioning, don't worry about it. Fortunately, whenever somebody needs to find me, they'll know where. Unfortunately, when I'm in trouble, teachers know where to find me too. I came here at the year 2008 and into Flavelle, then, a Head of House of Mac House. Even though I'm a grad, everyone thinks that I'm Grade 11 or below. In Community Service Council, I received the title as "the guy who makes posters." As an Asian, I had participated in the First Team player in my first year. I am known as the "crazy" and "aggressive" fencer of the Varsity Fencing team. I am irony-impaired and cannot tell sarcasm. With the help of the Andrean spirit, I learned when I put my resolve in one "certain thing", turn it into "everything". I thank SAC for giving me a great time in Canada as a new immigrant and I thank my parents for sending me here.

James LAU

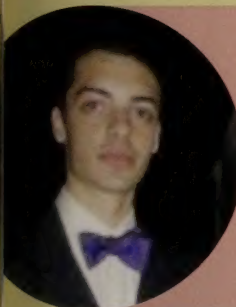

Spending 2 years at SAC, I have learned so many important things. I still remember how awkward I felt when I first walked in the main entrance of the school. I was worried at first because I had never lived in a school dorm before. In addition, I did not know anyone in SAC so I thought I would be very lonely. But as time went, I started to adjust to school by participating in sports, clubs and various school activities with great Andrean fellows. I've studied hard and did my work passionately with them. Now, I feel I've become a complete Andrean and ready to step forward to the real society after graduating SAC. So thanks to all the fellow students and teachers who helped me to become who I am now. I am definitely going to miss everyone around me and this amazing place, SAC.

I have studied here for 2 years since I came here from Hong Kong. My first impression toward SAC is those enormous football fields. Like many international students, I am a boarder. For me, the boarding life in SAC dominated a huge part of my high school life which is pretty unforgettable. I will never forget eating ribs in Mr. P's backyard while it was snowing. Hanging around with friends who are just living next door is also another unique experience in boarding life. If you ask me to tell the most stunning and unforgettable things about the entire school year, I would say it is the Carol Service, for sure. The last song – The Dorset Carol – is always the best part. Cadet Green Star and Card Trick Club are the two main activities I focused on during Grade 12. Cadets is the thing that I hated at the beginning and loved at the end. Being the Green Star instructor in Grade 12 makes Cadets means more for me. Founding a club with my friends is also a fun thing and let me develop my own interest. Long story short, I think SAC has been a great and right place for me and I am glad that I had my high school life here.

All my friends either call me Mar, Lippa or Mario. I am part of the brethren of Sifton House for which I carry the colours of blue, black and silver. I am a student who gets along with anyone and likes to help others interact and get involved leading them into the direction they like. I am proud to have been at St. Andrew's for grades 11 and 12. During my last year at SAC, I've reached a new level of responsibility knowing that next year is a new start to my life being at university. I thank my parents for taking advantage of such an opportunity to send me to such a prestigious school which will help me greatly for my future. Being at this school I have built a lot of respect for many people and friends who I hope to see and deal with later in life. I will always remember SAC and the times here, and I hope I can give such an opportunity to my kids.

Graduation is a great but also unfortunate event. We are happy because we finally finish our high school study; however, unfortunately, friends are leaving. We have been spent our life together in the same school for 3 years. Time has passed with dispute, doubt, but also happiness. Thanks SAC provides us the opportunity to meet, to be friend, and to acquaint with each other. Thanks SAC trains me not only academics but also athletics and leadership. Thanks SAC teaches me how to be a person and how to be a man. Moreover, thanks my parents send me to this place. Thousands of words come to one sentence: Thank you SAC parents, and friends.

Although I have only stayed at SAC for three short years, I really enjoyed the atmosphere here. At first, all I wanted from this school is a certificate of graduation. After getting to know the amazing people here at SAC, I realize that it is more than a school to me. It is my home in Canada. The time I have spent at SAC is way more than the time I spent in my actual home in China. With that realization, Mr. P and Mrs. P seem like my second parents. Cadets, the Carol Service, as well as the food in the Great Hall were the things I once hated, but now I am not sure if I could forget all of these. Mr. Giel was my advisor and he helped me not only with my academic scores, but also taught me the outlook on life. Mrs. Groves gave me a lot of useful advice with university applications for which I am very grateful. By coming to this school, I have made many good friends and I believe they will be friends forever.

I was at St. Andrew's College for seven years and have enjoyed my entire high school career in Smith House. I've been involved in several activities, such as ping pong, and the Mandarin club. I've enjoyed my time at this school befriending my teachers and improving my academic skills so that I feel properly prepared for the future. I'd like to thank my parents for the opportunity to attend SAC; I also give thanks to my teachers, advisor, and others who have had a special impact on my career here.

Michael LUM

After seven years at St. Andrew's, I can truly say I've grown into the complete man. My trip to Africa taught me independence, hard-work, and diligence, while spending time with friends in the Gallery taught me the importance of brotherhood and loyalty. As we move on into another chapter in our lives, I hope we can maintain the friendships made deep into the future. I'd like to thank my parents for giving me the opportunity to be an Andean, and for supporting me in every aspect of my life. God speed my Michaels, the force will always be with you.

Brendan MACDONALD

I would like to start off by thanking my parents for allowing me to attend St. Andrew's College. I would also like to thank my advisor Mr. Foote for everything he has helped me with, and my Housemaster Mr. Service for being reasonable with everything. I began my career here in Grade six, and have had many great times along the way. I have many memories that I will never forget including the Battlefields Tour, the St. Maarten Soccer trip and much more. Throughout my time at SAC I have developed into the complete ninja, and I have enjoyed my time playing on many soccer, lacrosse and basketball teams. I have also been successful in attaining the scholars tie and merit pin in various terms. I am grateful for the friendships I have gained with many Jets during my time here and hope to pursue living the jet life with them in the future. A shout-out to Ryan and Carter... two unforgotten soldiers. Thanks to the rest of the bros and jets, and all my other friends who made my time at SAC as enjoyable as it was.

Top five things I will remember about St. Andrew's College.

5. Breaking my ankle while running outside of Chapel.
4. All the marching during Cadets.
3. Mr. Stewart's History classes.
2. The school plays.
1. David Watts.

Thanks to my parents, to the class of 2011, and to my teachers. Good luck boys and see you at the reunion.

James MACKIN

My name is Matthew Wai Yin Mak. I am in Smith House and I have been in SAC for six years. During my time here, I have been involved in the cross country team, cricket team, Arts Council, Interfaith Society, Go Club, and Mandarin Club. Although my time here was long, I could still vividly remember the precious moments I had in my SAC career. Like the admirable Carol Service and the opportunities to wear kilts in Cadets. These memories will remain with me for a lifetime.

I would like to thank my friends for the fun times we had. Although we will be far apart in the universities we desired to get into, the times we shared together will never be forgotten. Finally, I would like to thank my parents for giving me the opportunity to send me to SAC. Thank you for allowing me to experience what it is like to be a unique and well rounded citizen. Your decision of sending me to St. Andrew's College helped me become a better and confident person.

It's been a long and windy road over the last six years at SAC, but writing this I realize that it is finally coming to an end. I still remember driving through the gates for my first day, unaware of everything I would learn, and the people I would soon meet; eventually being able to call them brothers. I feel it necessary right now to thank my parents for being able to give me this opportunity to have all these experiences; Mom, Dad, wouldn't have been able to do this with out you, so thank you. Mike your times going to come soon bud, it might seem like an eternity away, but it's a lot closer than you think, so cherish it. Like to take the time to give a shout out to Mr. Shrimpton; you were always on my case about everything, shaving, sweater, socks, top button - which wasn't my fault my neck's just so huge - but at the end of it all I know you just wanted me to be at my best, so I thank you for that. And then there's all the boys; there are honestly too many of you beaunts to mention you all, so you guys know who you are. You guys made it the best six years possible and I wouldn't have changed it. Looking back on it all, there has been so many memories, that they seem to be conjoined together in a blur. The Battlefields tour; we only had two hours of free time a night, but God did we make them count. The countless trips up to Collingwood; Being a part of "The Round"; Potluck Thursdays; The Montreal Trip, never blew $110 so fast. I wish I could say more, but there are just way too many. It's going to be a sad day when I drive down that driveway for the last time in my suit and tie, it will be an end of an era; but the beginning of another. Keep in touch boys, love you all. Stay Classy.

St. Andrew's College has meant the world to me; I'd like to thank my parents for giving me the opportunity to attend SAC. Some of the teachers I want to thank are Mr. Gurr, Mr. Service, Mr. Ludwig and of course Mr. Shrimpton. I owe the St. Andrew's College basketball organization a big thanks for letting me participate for 7 years; going to miss running the court with you boys. I wanna thank the boys for sticking by me during the years, and watching out for me. I can't believe I am still standing after 7 years of SAC, so I have to give a big thanks to the guys from the round club and the Jets. Big shout out to Tingz miss you bro. Time passes so remember the moment, every moment should be a classic. The people I've met and the places I been, all will make me the man I so proudly am. (KiD CuDi)

 Experience at SAC: I enjoyed my time at St. Andrew's College and would just like to thank my parents for allowing me to come to such a great school. It's hard to believe that 7 years of my life have gone by being at this school when it feels like I've been here all my life. SAC has truly impacted my life in a huge way, from being a small, shy, little grade 6 still stuck in his shell, to being a Prefect and having a hopefully promising future ahead. You can never predict what your future will be at SAC, the opportunities are endless and taking advantage of them is something that can't be offered anywhere else. I would like to thank Mr. Josselyn for what he has done for me throughout my SAC career. Without his encouragement, and influence I wouldn't have been the individual you see today. I would also like to thank Mr. Shrimpton for all the times when I needed help with any situation. You were a big impact on my path through SAC. I would just like to shout out to all of my boys: Twig, Kerr, Harris, Hewko, Josh, Jamal, Fockter, Big Ed, Pug, Ferraro, Sonny, Will, Alec, Mardini, Kieran, Robbie, Carter and anyone else who I missed. You guys were the reason why SAC was so enjoyable and I would like to thank you all and the best wishes to all of you for your future in this world.

My three years as a boarder at SAC have been beyond successful. I've enjoyed all that the school has to offer and feel that I have become a complete man, a well-rounded citizen. During my time at St. Andrew's I've played Football and Rugby, participated in a few school plays, toured tons of visitors around the school and spent time in Mac House... so I've been busy. Most importantly I've made life-long friends. I have more people to thank than I can list but Coach Gurr and my parents have played a huge role in my life and the realization of my dream to play division one football. I leave for Boston College prepared for the challenge that awaits. I will always be a proud Andrean and hope to come back and visit frequently. Go Saints!

The thought of losing my friends was scary but I knew I would make new ones. It was like it was just yesterday that I opened the letter that literally changed my life. SAC has been there for the last four years and there are things that will never be forgotten. Over the years there has definitely been some life changing moments, and people who have gone through them with me. My grandpa was the one who encouraged me to go to this school, it's been 10 years without him but nobody pushed me more to apply. For everything else there's mom and dad. I don't know how you guys did it, but I'm sure glad you did. I can't say thank you enough. Al, thanks for waiting, and I can still jump higher! Boys you know who you are and it wouldn't have been the same without you. From BP, Namibia, and all the things that I forget it's been unforgettable. Mrs. Pries, you thought right and I saw the Pizzaville lady roll up in an escalade the other day, wonder why. Gurr, yeah, you told me so! I still don't know how you called that one. We're almost there boys and I hope everyone makes it to the finish. Finally, good things happen for a reason; if you're reading this, make that reason happen. NM

After 7 years at SAC I can honestly say I have no regrets. I have partaken in many aspects of School life including being a House Captain, Assistant Head of New House and participating on football, skiing, hockey, soccer and rugby. I would like to thank my parents for sending me to this incredible institution and all the teachers who helped me on the way. Calgary '08, BF '09, KV TGB, semi '11 FTB, inaugural Shadow prefects '11. I have made many friends here including the JETS, the Taylor gang, the bros, and the kv crew. Shout out to all the boys 'twas a phenomenal 7 years. I was resentful of it all at first. I had never experienced any sort of school structure that needed to be followed; they just don't teach structure in public schools like they do at St. Andrew's. Cadets and Chapel were the farthest things from any of my interests. I may be a Christian, but praising at 8:10 AM was not really my thing. Marching for Cadets then standing perfectly still while inspections were being done, it just didn't suit me. It eventually got better as time went on, I got used to it all. I met some really cool people and have made some good friends throughout the two years I've been going here. I have had some good teachers as well. I also have come to not mind Chapel anymore, although I still have never seemed to get into Cadets... I don't think I ever will. I've had some good times and some bad times here. It has been an opportunity not too many other people in this world will ever get. I've experienced the best and the worst of it all. I hope all the best to my graduating class, especially the ones who I'm friends with, and wish you well in university. We finally graduated boys, congrats.

Andrew NELSON

I would like to thank my parents for giving me the opportunity to go to St. Andrew's. Without their efforts I never would have met all the friends that I met during my time at SAC. I would also like to thank my teachers and advisors for the support they gave me to enable me to achieve what I did during my time at SAC. Some highlights of my time at SAC are being a part of the robotics club in Grade 11 and playing on U16 Soccer in Grade 9 and 10. Being promoted to Warrant Officer of Smith Company for Cadets in Grade 12 has also been a highlight for me.

I'm graduating with my highest marks ever. I thank my friend Will (Egi) whose encouragement and moral support made me believe in myself. I am forever grateful to my Flavelle brothers who taught me that we are stronger as a team than as individuals; and without a sense of humour everything would be more difficult and a lot less fun. Mr. Shrimpton encouraged me to take full advantage of everything SAC had to offer and just "go after it". (P.S. look after Tylamar!). By far the greatest influence of all was Mr. Scouler. His confidence and encouragement challenged me to define my love for theatre and film and to pursue a career in production, direction and technical aspects of the field. It will be my honour one day to accept an Oscar and thank him in front of an audience of millions. Dylan (Amar) and I will be taking the next year to travel, work, study and volunteer.

As you enter high school, it is difficult to comprehend the effect that it will have on your life. Does it really matter where you go? Or is one high school experience the same as any other one? Thoughts like these ran through my mind constantly before coming to St. Andrew's, but would disappear in no time. This school has developed me into the complete man, the well rounded citizen. It happened in the classroom, on the soccer field, on the hockey rink, in the Staunton Gallery, on the road trips, in the hallways, on stage, in Africa and in the Chapel. I want to thank the teachers who were there for me when I needed advice and motivation, and for the ones who made me look forward to going to their class. The most cherished things that I will take from this school are the friends that I have as a result of coming here. I don't want to mention any names, but hopefully they'll know who they are. From the ones that were with me from the beginning, to new beginnings with old friends, to the new friends I met, and to the guys I got closer to as my time here wore on. It is these friends who made my time at St. Andrew's unforgettable, and as I move onto life after SAC I know I will always be able to share the times we had together with them.

Richard OCCHIPINTI

Thanks to my advisors Harding and Juice for always for giving me straight up advice when making hard decisions. The unforgettable times the Caledon crew has had together from the start to the end. In the words of Anatole France, "To accomplish great things, we must not only act, but also dream; not only plan, but also believe". Over the past seven years at St. Andrew's College, I have indeed learned how to dream. It is within these gates that I have acquired not simply the knowledge one needs to succeed practically in life, but more importantly the wisdom to endeavor to become a complete man. I have immersed myself in everything this school has afforded me and loved every minute of it. As a goalkeeper for First Soccer, I have discovered the true joy of being part of team. As Captain of Nordic Skiing, I have discovered a new passion for a sport I will pursue for the rest of my life. And as the Pipe Major of the Pipes & Drums, I have followed in the footsteps of many great pipers before me, embracing my Highland roots.

I have been at St. Andrew's College since Gr. 7, and has it been a ride. SAC has changed my life from an underachieving punk who put clothes hangers in his ears and tackled bushes, to less of an underachieving punk who has come so far and looks forward to a much brighter future. Over the years I have been a Macdonald House captain, Head of House, as well as a part of Mac House Council. I see myself working in an advertising firm or as a graphic designer in future years. Some of my favorite teachers would have to be Mr. Kimmerer and Mr. Paolini for helping me through Arts and Media Arts and setting me up for the career ahead of me. My favorite memories would have to be winning YPI and winning $5000 in donation for "The Yellow Brick House" as well as the trip to St. Donat. Coming to SAC was one of the best decisions I have ever made and my two years here have been the best two years of my life, so far. The friendships, experiences and memories I have made here are ones that will last a life time and it is all thanks to my parents, teachers, coaches and my 1st puck road trips. Winning CISAA, MPHL, MacPherson and Floorball OFSAA were only few of the many successes I have had here. This school has shaped and prepared me for the rest of my life.

As a "New Boy" in Grade 11 I wasn't quite sure if St. Andrew's College was the right place for me. I was very nervous, but the nerves quickly went away and I became part of one of best communities in the world, and got over 500 new brothers. The Andrean life is something that I certainly have not taken for granted, and I know that I will miss this great school after I leave this year. There are so many great memories I have at this school only from 2 years of being here like winning CISAA Gold with JV Puck for 2 years straight, and winning every single tournament we entered in Grade 11, or having an excellent year as a first time goalie for the St. Andrew's Varsity Lacrosse Team. The environment at SAC is one that welcomes everyone no matter what they're specialty may be. I will never forget the times I have spent here making many friends that I hope to see down the road at many occasions. St. Andrew's College hasn't really felt like school, but more like a home, with my family of brothers, and teachers to guide you along the path to becoming the complete man. I have nearly completed that path, and I have St. Andrew's to thank for helping me each and every step along the way.

Ahh how quickly four years can go by. I've had some of the best times of my life because of this school, something I'd never been able to say about school before SAC. Living at school gives you no choice but to be immersed, and I've embraced every second of it. I've met some great guys, who've become great friends, and the experiences I've been able to share with them will stay with me forever. Battlefields, Africa, pond hockey, Tim Horton's voyages, and getting belligerent to name a few. I'd like to thank Mr. Josselyn for putting up with my sarcastic remarks every Tuesday during break for the past four years, as well as thanking Mr. Prezrens for always being a great guy. Quick shout out to The Boysies and the Varsity Tanning Team; you know who are. Thanks to Mom and Dad for letting me out of their lives for four years, and thanks to my grandparents for financing the whole shebang. My SAC experience was one I'll never forget.

After 4 years at SAC I can truly say it has been an amazing experience. With all the ups and down in and outside the classroom, it had taught me to be an ideal Andrean. I want to thank all my teachers and coaches for making the past 4 years incredibly remunerable. I'm going to miss the entire 1st soccer team as they taught me so much on and off the field. I'm going to miss the endless game of lightning, the early morning games on Saturdays, and the games where we crush UCC, and especially all the roadies. I can't believe my 4 years at St. Andrew's is over, it's going to be extremely hard to say goodbye to this place.

Peace Boys!

Stephen REEL

I have been at SAC for six years now. I have played on multiple different sports teams. I have enjoyed all that SAC has had to offer me and will definitely miss this place. I'd like to thank my parents for giving me the opportunity to attend this amazing school. Without the chance I wouldn't have met many of the good friends I have today. Dileas Gu Brath.

I would like to thank the Perrier's for being there all the time.

Thanks to my father and Mr. Ross Reucassel for making it possible to attend this school.

Good Luck to everyone; keep in touch.

Patrick ROOT

I will finally graduate from St. Andrew's College as a lifer. Looking back, Middle School highlights were travelling to Calgary and winning the U14 Soccer Championship. Upper School memories included being Pipe Sergeant of the Pipes and Drums, co-captain of the varsity swim team, along with involvement with the Arts Council, Admissions Club, and SLG peer support. Other significant memories include two momentous trips in 2010 to Holland with the Pipes and Drums, and Africa with the SASSAW group, which I amazingly survived despite numerous near-death experiences. I would like to take this opportunity to thank my family for supporting me during my tenure at SAC.

Steven SIRBOVAN

I went to SAC for two years. I came here for football, and I have Mr. Bruce Keyes to thank for that. Once I got here I felt very comfortable with my football coaches Mr. Carroll and Mr. Gurr. Mr. Carroll was my coach and my advisor so we spent a lot of time together. I would like to thank both of them for believing in my and giving me the chance to become a part of this school and its football team. I am in Sifton House and in my last year I was the assistant head of house. In my two years at this school I have made some good friends and met some great people. This school helped me so much to get where I need to be in life. Thanks and peace out, SAC.

Joshua SMITH

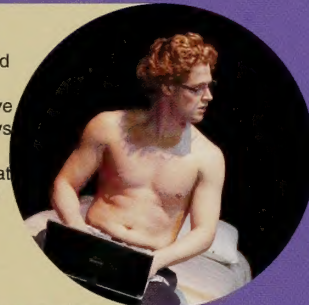

This is my fourth and final year at SAC. Over the years I participated in the legendary Model UN conference of 2008 in New York, the St. Andrew's Green Environmentalists, and was a member of the First Swimming team for all my years here. In my final year I decided to contribute back to the school that has opened a whole new world of opportunities for me by becoming a member of the Student Led Groups and the Writing and Publication Council. I want to thank my parents for the opportunity to attend a place like this. Coming here was a great idea mom! And I want to extend my thanks to my advisor Ms. Thorne for her tireless support and encouragement. I wish there were more hours in day so I could have had the chance to take advantage of everything this great school has to offer. Four years have gone by fast. For someone who has been moving around the world all his life, and who regards change – for good or bad – as inevitable, I am glad that my years in high school were spent at St. Andrew's. I will never forget this place and the people I met. The Spartan will miss his home.

Theofilos SOTIROPOULOS

I cannot believe how fast my years at St. Andrew's have gone. This place is certainly something special because I have met so many good friends that I will have for a lifetime. St. Andrew's is definitely the definition of a brotherhood because everyone is so close together. I couldn't have survived through these eventful four years without all my good buddies from the graduating class of 2010, or all the hockey guys I became so close with this year. There have been so many good times, whether thinking back of memorable amazing sports moments or just being with the boys having a good time. The school itself is very hard to keep up with but certainly strengthens your character and provides preparation when having to deal with adversity. All in all, I have had some of the greatest times of my life at this school and I am thankful and grateful that my parents' hard work gave me the opportunity to attend a place like St. Andrew's College.

Activities: U15 Soccer, U16 Football, Alpine Skiing, First Football

Music program: Strings Ensemble, Wind Ensemble

Leadership Role: House Captain - Macdonald House, Floor Captain - Sifton House

I have been studying in St. Andrew's College for four years, and it is probably the best four years and the period I learned the most in my life. I have played varsity team sports that I never tried before; I have tried adventures and attempted things that I would never have done when I was back in Hong Kong. St. Andrew's College has really trained me as a well-rounded citizen; I have discovered a lot of interests and hobbies; I have been given several leadership roles in residential life; I have met friends from all over the world. Studying in St. Andrew's College has really broadened my horizons. This experience has prepared me for university and my career path. I enjoyed being part of the music ensemble program, part of the sports program, and part of the St. Andrew's community. I will never forget the wonderful moments I had in here.

St. Andrew's is one of the best choices I have ever made. The opportunity that the school and my parents have given me has been crucial to my success. I would like to sincerely thank my parents for the sacrifice they have taken financially by sending me to St. Andrew's, I hope I have returned the favour. I would also like to thank all of my teachers that took the time to answer my questions and teach me the necessary material that got me to this point. I will miss the good times I had with the baseball team, and the good times we had on the bus and the diamond (GOO GOO GA GA). I will also miss the friends that I have made over the past 4 years here, but I know I will keep in touch and our friendships will never dwindle. After my experience here I have grown stronger as an individual and have learned many life lessons that I will carry with me for the rest of my life. I know I am prepared for college and anything else that steps in the way of my goals. Again, Thank you St. Andrew's for making me into a complete man and a well rounded citizen.

I have attended SAC for 4 years. I am from Ramsay House. I've participated in a variety of sports, such as swimming, curling, badminton and Nordic skiing. I have also been in several clubs, including, Interfaith Society, Multicultural Society, Photographers of SAC, GO Club, Mandarin Club, Book Club. I also participate in Cadets and was a Green Star Course Instructor. I would like to thank my parents for giving this amazing opportunity at this school and for all the support that I have had inside the school. I wish to pursue a career in sciences and biology in the future.

Since arriving in Grade 9, I have experienced uniquely SAC phenomena include the super efficient snow shoveling crew that never fail to wake me up at 6:00am each morning, St. Andrew's Day Dinner where I get to experience lovely haggis, cheering for the First Hockey Team at McPherson Tournament and the Carol Service. I have been taught by teachers who are flexible and available to provide extra help sessions. I have experienced the many opportunities available at SAC, and have been involved in all aspects of school life. I want to thank Mr. & Mrs. Perrier. They have been like parents to me through all of my boarding life at SAC. I would like to thank Mr. Finlay, for tirelessly answering to my pizza lunch requests (and advising of course), Mr. Gurr, the coolest history teacher (enough said), Mr. Numa, for all those funny little jokes en el clase de espanol, and Mr. Service, for making Economics the class I pay the most attention in. Looking back on the four years, I am privileged to have been educated in such a special place, to have known classmates and friends, and most importantly, to have gained an experience that will stay with me for the rest of my life.

I have been here since grade 7 and have enjoyed every moment of it. I participated in U14 Volleyball, U16 Volleyball, U13 Basketball, Weight room and various other recreational sports during my time at SAC. I'm a multiple times scholar and merit award winner. My favourite memories were chillin' in the gallery during spares, working out in the gym with the boys. I am looking forward to going off to Uni. I hope to keep in touch with everyone in the graduating class.

Christian THOMAS

I attended St. Andrew's College since the tenth grade. Throughout my three years in St. Andrew's College I boarded in Memorial House. All my three years in SAC I never took an interest in sports. For the first term in grade 10 I played U16 Soccer. I was more focused on my personal fitness so I have done weightlifting for all three years. I did my best and my hardest in academics. I have learned many important skills at SAC that will help me later in life. I will always remember St. Andrew's College.

I have thoroughly enjoyed my time here at SAC for the past 5 years. I believe that SAC changed me into a more complete person and has given me the assets and the confidence I need to succeed in university and beyond. If there is one highlight that I would choose from my time here at SAC it would be the times I've shared with several friends here at SAC who I will always remain close with. Also want to give an M-TOWN shout out to Kerr, Richard and Mardini, and Will. Markham Represent!

Akshay WADERA

I'd just like to say thank you to my friends and family back home for supporting me during my time at SAC. It's a rough transition being away from home but I can proudly say that it makes a huge difference and has given me the confidence to pursue further education past high school. My friends here at SAC: Sebby, Joey, Glenner, Toby, Sapheer; thanks for making grad year one to remember. Nelson is the worst. Near the end of my freshman year at an international school in China, I decided to continue my high school journey in Canada. A family friend, whose two sons both attended St. Andrew's, introduced me to SAC and thought it would be a good school for me; one that would help me develop academically and personally. I applied, and it was soon September. I was very uncertain of what awaited me here and whether this place would be a fit for me, up until and after the much talked of moment where I first saw the campus. I wondered if I had made too hasty a decision to uproot myself from a place where I had settled comfortably. However, the adage of "nothing ventured, nothing gained" proceeded to describe my years here. I met a wealth of qualified and passionate faculty and a supportive boarding program, in addition to being exposed to a myriad of unique opportunities and activities. In my three years at SAC, I have gone through a variety of unique and interesting experiences. I've met and roomed with many different people, many with which I've formed lasting friendships. Now, nearing the end of my SAC and high school journey and looking back at it all, I feel no uncertainties or regrets about my decision. I'd also like to thank my parents for their guidance and support; despite being half the world away, they still found ways to set me straight when I needed it. Thanks!

Time flies here at St. Andrew's College. Compared to those who have been here for six or seven years, my three years here have been just a blink of an eye and it is hard to believe that it has come to an end. SAC has been a second home for me besides the one on the other side of the Pacific Ocean. In this place I have made many friends who have helped me with language skills, getting used to boarding life, and getting over homesickness. Here I would like to give special thanks to the fellow Andreans who have been a significant part of my memories, especially Nick Chretien, Tommy Kim, and Jordan Palmieri. I also feel the need to thank Joey Kim for driving me on Fridays, David Lau for letting me use his locker, and Jerome Biroo for all those silly conversations. It is a pleasure to have worked with Mr. Dave Stewart who is a great Housemaster with a sense of humor, my passionate advisor Mr. Michael Paluch and all the teachers who have taught me and influenced me. My memories of SAC will only grow more precious as every one of us moves forward in the future. I wish everyone the best

Coming to this school in grade 6, I wasn't too sure what to expect. I was an introverted and shy individual who was not into social activities. Now at the end of my journey, I have realized that I found a school full of great students and dedicated teachers. St. Andrew's College is really a place where you can discover and excel at things that you would have never imagined. I'll take away all the good memories that I have accumulated throughout my time at SAC including the long road trips for sporting events and the countless hours of band rehearsals. Coming to SAC was surely a correct choice and all the memories will forever be in my heart. Seven years of SAC life has changed me as a student and a person. St. Andrew's will always be a part of me and I will proudly call myself an Andrean.

My five years at St. Andrew's College have definitely been highlights of my life. I have become more capable of living life to the fullest by finding the balance between the academics and extracurricular activities. Having been part of a number of different activities, I am confident to say now that I have developed into a more complete and well-rounded man. I would like to take this as a chance to thank my teachers: Thanks Mr. and Mrs. Pernier for helping me with various aspects of boarding life. Thanks Mr. Finlay for being the best advisor, not to mention the unforgettable pizza lunches. Thanks Mr. Jones for being such an enthusiastic Chemistry teacher for three years. Thanks Mr. Cowell and Dr. Evans for your constant interests in helping me develop my English skills. Thanks Mr. Swan for all the help you gave me with university applications. Thanks Mr. Numa for trying to understand my broken Spanish. Lastly, I will end with mentioning my friends. Well, that will take forever. I will just put it this way..... "Thanks ANDREANS!!"

I have been at St. Andrew's since Grade six. In my time here I have been involved as a Middle School House Captain, Student Network Assistant and as a Student Ambassador; furthermore, I was a member of the swim team, badminton team, McEwen Leadership Program, guitar club, jazz band, and wind ensemble. I would like to thank my wonderful teachers and advisor for helping me over the course of the past seven years. But most importantly, I would like to thank my parents for working hard so that I could attend this fine school. I look forward to the future that SAC has prepared me for.

Ramsay House

The 2010-11 edition of Ramsay House was successful on all fronts. We enjoyed considerable success with inter-house competitions and were strong contributors in the various school events that make the school year so memorable. Ramsay House students figured prominently in all areas of the school's vast athletic program including the year end Spring Smash festival day; Ramsay House had one of its strongest showings in the annual Cadet Inspection in recent memory; Ramsay House musicians and actors stood out in the Carol Service and Focus Festival of the Arts; Ramsay House had a record number of Prefects in the leadership group this year; the list goes on and on. I am very proud of the accomplishments of the members of the House generally and the graduating class specifically ably led by this year's Head of House, Andrew Carr.

"Touch not the cat But a glove"

So much can be said about the great times In Smith House during the 2010/2011 year. From dominating school competitions, to fundraising events, to the biggest and best Smith House pizza lunches, Smith House has had a tremendous year. When walking down the halls of St. Andrew's College, people know if you're in Smith House. It is something you can only gain from being a member of this extraordinary house. The boys of Smith House showed what they were made of throughout many of the big school events during the year. All of these immense times and events brought Smith House closer together and displayed how we were united as one. I would like to take the time now to thank Spencer Brown, and Jon Knowles my right hand men in Smith House. They were great Assistant Heads of House the entire year. And last but not least, Len Gurr our Housemaster of Smith. Without him this ultimate swagger would not be possible. Smith House till I D-I-E. - Andrew Kerr

SASSAW Trip

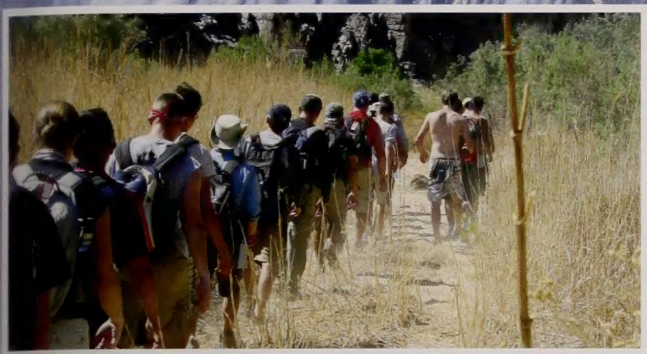

"It has been four years since my time at St. Andrew's. After leaving the school, for what I thought would be the last time, I forgot what it meant to be an Andrea. Being with the boys and the teachers as an Old Boy chaperone on this trip reminded me of how tight the SAC community has been for me." - Tyler Munro

During a five-day community service project at the Fransfontein Primary School in rural Namibia, the St. Andrew's group painted and renovated six classroom blocks. They also had time to play games with the children during recess and after school each day, as well as to distribute a large quantity of donated clothing, school supplies, toys, and dental kits that were provided by the boys and their parents.

The Namibia trip was one of the highlights of my me at SAC thus far. The most memorable experience for me was the hike across difficult terrain in the Kalahari Desert, and being surrounded by a herd of elephants on night at our campsite." - Steven Sirbovan

The second leg of the adventure involved a four-day hiking expedition in the Kalahari Desert. Over the first three days, the boys spent a great deal of time learning how to use a map and compass to navigate in the desert, and they practiced planning and prepping for an expedition. This was in preparation for a 24 km challenge trek they completed entirely on their own on the fourth day of the adventure. On the third afternoon the boys were given a map and 24 grid references as well as a short briefing. After that, it was up to them to plan their entire solo trek. After choosing a group leader, the boys divided into teams including navigation, first aid, water, lunch prep and breakfast teams, and they got down to work at planning their journey.
